Plaintiff

Defendants

Upson and Deeds et al

On the motion of the Attorney for the Commonwealth, it is ordered that a writ of Capital be awarded against the Defendants, returnable here to the first day of the next term.

It is the opinion of the Court, that one guard is necessary to enable the Sheriff to safely carry the prisoner, returned at this term to confinement, in the Penitentiary.

Rich Slonky, who stands committed to jail to answer an indictment... On the motion of Attorney for the Commonwealth, it is ordered, that the said Rich Slonky be discharged from his imprisonment.

David Fortis, who stands indicted of Murder and has been hitherto arraigned and pleaded not guilty, the indictment, was this day again led to the bar in custody of the jailer. And a panel of sixteen persons of the County were summoned by the Sheriff, were examined by the Court, found free from all legal exception and qualified to serve as jurors according to law. Thereupon the accused promptly challenged four of jurors and the remaining twelve to wit:— John H. Wells, Amos L. Pope, George Knight, James Barnes, Giles Pope, Joseph A. Williams, Edwin Williams, John L. Williams, James M. Drury, Omit Charles, T. A. Palmer and J. F. Lester, who are elected tried and return the truth of and upon the promises to speak, and having
