

Refused to appear. Conveying to 6.

and S. Ruffess, Jenia, and

from Leicher
of real estate.

May 1, 1876.
Darden
March 25th 1876.

to G. Gigg,
March 25th 1876.
Gigg, receipts to Henderson.

March 31st 1876.
to Cordery C.

records April
from Godwin
estate, about

to 6, from
conveying real estate, about

to 6, from
conveying real
estate, about

to 6, from
conveying real
estate, about

to 6, from
conveying real
estate, about

to 6, from
conveying real
estate, about

to 6, from
conveying real
estate, about

to 6, from
conveying real
estate, about

to 6, from
conveying real
estate, about

to 6, from
conveying real
estate, about

Lester R. Edwards, Registrar in the Franklin Magisterial District, this day tendered his resignation, which is approved and accepted by the Court.

Samuel Johnson, who stands indicted by Grand Jury this day led to the bar in Custody of the jailer of this Court and being thereof arraigned, pleaded not guilty to the indictment, and a panel of sixteen persons of the shery was summoned by the Sheriff, were examined by the Court, found free from all legal exception and qualified to serve as jurors according to law, thereupon the accused presumptuously challenged four of the jurors, and the remaining twelve to wit, E. C. Knight, James Owens, Elijah Ingram, J. L. Feltz, Geo. W. Bond, Geo. J. Williams, Mackenzie Johnson, Edward Rufford, John F. Yates, Allen St. Cortner, C. C. Ferguson, were elected heard and sworn the juror to and upon the prisoner to speak, and having heard the evidence upon their Oath do say "We the jury find the prisoner guilty and fine him terms in the Penitentiary for four years," and thereupon the prisoner is remanded to jail.

Robert Smith who stands indicted by Grand Jury this day led to the bar in Custody of the jailer of this Court and being thereof arraigned pleaded not guilty to the indictment, and a panel of sixteen persons of the shery was summoned by the Sheriff, were examined by the Court, found free from all legal exception and qualified to serve as jurors according to law, thereupon the accused presumptuously challenged four of the jurors, and the remaining twelve to wit, Albert Ingram, W. D. Stephenson, Walter Vick, Geo. B. Fife, Jas. St. Owens, John B. Fife, F. J. Ridley, George W. Herring, Henry Ingram, Ely Ingram, W. B. Ridley, Geo. J. Williams were elected heard and sworn the juror to and upon the prisoner to speak, and having heard the evidence, upon their Oath do say "We the jury find the prisoner guilty and ascertain his term of imprisonment to be five years, in the State Penitentiary" and thereupon the prisoner is remanded to jail.

Sam Rice who stands indicted by Grand Jury this day led to the bar in Custody of the jailer of this Court and being thereof arraigned pleaded not guilty to the indictment, and a panel of sixteen persons of the shery was summoned by the Sheriff, were examined by the Court, found free from all legal exception and qualified to serve as jurors according to law, thereupon the accused presumptuously challenged four of the jurors, and the remaining twelve to wit, Elijah Ingram, J. L. Feltz, Geo. J. Williams, Mackenzie Johnson, A. A. Holland, Edward Rufford, Albert Ingram, John F. Yates, Allen St. Cortner, Charles Parker, J. W. Stephenson, and Richard Davis, who were elected heard and sworn the juror to and upon the prisoner to speak, and having heard the evidence upon their Oath do say, "We the jury find the prisoner guilty and ascertain the term of his imprisonment in the Penitentiary to be two years," and thereupon the prisoner is remanded to jail.

James Hunt who stands indicted by Grand Jury this day led to the bar in Custody of the jailer of this Court and being thereof arraigned pleaded not guilty to the indictment, and a panel of sixteen persons of the shery was summoned by the Sheriff, were examined by the Court, found free from