

Tuesday Morning June the 20th 1876

Present,

William Brown

against

John Hyatt

The Hon. J. C. M'Pharlan, Judge.

Deft.) Upon a cause
Hab. Corpus.

(Deft.)

The defendant John Hyatt this day made the following statement upon the writ of Hab. Corpus awarded against him. "I am a man, Mary Hyatt, reported as in this suit, is in my possession, however I claim her, and recognize her, as mine." And for reasons appearing to the Court, the Case is Continued until the first day of the next Term.

The Court certifies that D. K. Steury, Wm. B. Samuels, H. A. Bunting, George Gillett, Henry Morris, William Williams, T. W. King and H. H. Nequin are entitled to be doctors each in their service this term, as Grand Jury, to be paid out of the County Tax.

It is the opinion of the Court, that the grand jury is occupying to recall the Sheriff of this County, or safely carry the process, servitors, returned at this term, to the Districting of the Commonwealth.

Ordered that the Court be adjourned, until the first day of the next Term.
