The last Will and Testament of Ann P. Judkins, was proved by the Court of Charles E. C. Bartlett, one of the Subscribing witnesses thereto, and the other Subscribing witness having died, and Wm. H. Briggs having sworn as a disinterested trustee of the hand writing of the said Testament, the Court after hearing the evidence of the said Briggs is of opinion that the signature of the said C. E. Bartlett to the said Will subscribed as a witness, is in his own proper handwriting. Therefore it is ordered that the said Will be recorded as the true last Will and Testament of the said Ann P. Judkins decd. And there being no execution of said in the said Will, on the petition of Nathan M. Eper, who testifies (and Charles E. C. Bartlett) his Security (who justified on Oath as to his Sufficiency) entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Five Hundred Dollars, conditioned according to law, of which bond is ordered to be recorded. Certificate is granted the said Nathan M. Eper, for obtaining letters of administration on the Estate of the said Ann P. Judkins decd. with the will annexed in due form.

A writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Anderson Bates decd. was this day produced to the Court for probate, and it appearing to the Court that the same is not executed according to law, doth refuse to admit the same to probate.
