

Tuesday Morning August 22nd 1876.

Present

The Hon. J. H. Usher.

Will Jordan, who stands convicted of felony, was again led to the bar in custody of the jailer of this Court, and thereupon he being demanded of him if any thing for himself he had or knew to say, why the Court here should not now proceed to pronounce judgment against him according to law, and nothing being offered or alleged in delay of judgment, it is considered by the Court that the said Will Jordan be imprisoned in the penitentiary of this Commonwealth for the term of five years, the period by the jurors in their verdict ascertained. And it is ordered, that the Sheriff of this County, do as soon as possible after the adjournment of this Court, remove and safely convey the said Will Jordan from the jail of this Court to the penitentiary of this Commonwealth, wherein to be kept imprisoned and treated in the manner directed by law. And thereupon the said prisoner is remanded to jail.

Henry Watford who stands indicted of felony, was this day led to the bar in custody of the jailer of this Court and being thereof examined pleaded not guilty to the indictment, and a panel of sixteen persons of the County, summoned by the Sheriff, examined by the Court, found him free from all legal exception and qualified to serve as juror according to law. Thereupon the accused personally challenged four of the jurors and the remaining twelve, to wit: J. H. Williams, J. Bishop, R. D. Williams, W. D. Whitehead, Samuel Vock, J. H. Simmons, J. Williams, L. H. Davis, David Broadshaw, Frank Jeger, Perry Beale and James Bishop, who being called and sworn the truth of and upon the promises to speak, and having heard the evidence do say, that the jury find the prisoner guilty and ascertain his term of imprisonment in the penitentiary to be eight years. And thereupon, it being demanded of him, the Henry Watford, if any thing for himself, he had or knew to say, why the Court here should not now proceed to pronounce judgment against him according to law, and nothing being offered or alleged in delay of judgment, it is considered by the Court that the said Henry Watford be imprisoned in the penitentiary of this Commonwealth for the term of eight years, the period by the jurors in their verdict ascertained. And it is ordered, that the Sheriff of this County, do as soon as possible after the adjournment of this Court, remove and safely convey the said Henry Watford from the jail of this Court to the penitentiary of this Commonwealth, wherein to be kept and treated in the manner directed by law. And thereupon the prisoner is remanded to jail.
