The Account of Walter Sporn's transactions as Guardian of Margaret E. and Leonard Holland, the account of James J. Gordon's transactions as attorney for said Margaret E. and Leonard Holland, having been duly reported in the Clerk's Office, and no exception being filed thereto, they were officially examined, confirmed, and ordered to be recorded. And

It appearing to the Court that the expenditures made by Walter Sporn as Guardian of Margaret E. and Leonard Holland were proper, the Court doth hereby confirm the same so far as they have been made by January 1st 1877.

William Duganish, Foreman, W. H. Duganish, A. H. Duganish, Geo. W. Lawrence, J. B. Brown, S. D. Watkins, A. L. Nelson, Joseph B. Gillman, Sec. of Turners, R. S. Dyer, and seven a Special Grand jury of inquiry for the body of John Conley, and having received their charge and returned, and after sometime returned into Court and presented an indictment against Martin Moore for felony "a true bill." They also made the following presentment to wit: "The present C. J. Gordon, for committing an assault upon one George Washington (Cheney) on the 1st day of November 1876, upon the evidence of George Washington, sworn as Juror and sent to the Grand Jury at their request." And the said grand jury having reported further to present was discharged.

Martin Moore, who stands indicted for felony was this day led to the bar in custody of the jailer of this Court, and being thereof assigned pleaded not guilty to the indictment, and a panel of twelve persons of the County was summoned by the Sheriff, and examined by the Court and found free from all legal exceptions and qualified to serve as jurors according to law. Thereupon the accused promptly challenged four of the jurors, and the remaining twelve, to wit, J. W. Camp, James Goodrich, M. L. Johnson, James Davenport, James H. Vaughan, S. D. Brown, R. S. Dyer, C. S. Stephens, W. E. Janet, D. L. Kelly, J. J. Gordon, and R. L. Venable, who being elected tried and sworn the Court of and upon the promise to speak and having heard the evidence upon their oath do say "We the jury find the prisoner guilty, and ascertain his imprisonment to be ten (10) years in the State Penitentiary." And therefore it being demanded of him the said Martin Moore if anything for himself he had or knew to say why the Court should not send him to the penitentiary according to law, and finding him offering no defense in delay of judgment, it is considered by the Court that the said Martin Moore be imprisoned in the Penitentiary of the Commonwealth for the
