

of Five Hundred dollars, and the said R. A. Briscoe, in the like sum of Five Hundred dollars, to be bound of their respective goods and chattels, lands and tenements, for the use of the Commonwealth. But to be void if the said J. L. Thompson shall personally appear in this Court on the first day of the next term thereof, and surrender himself in custody, and not depart thence without leave of the Court.

Joiah Manigoe, James McHenry, John J. Johnson, Robert Young, have in Court solemnly acknowledged themselves indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia, in the sum of fifty dollars each, to be bound of their several goods and chattels, lands and tenements to the use of the Commonwealth. Not upon this condition, that if the said Joiah Manigoe, James McHenry, John J. Johnson, Robert Young, shall make their personal appearance before the Court on the first day of the next term thereof, and give such evidence as may be required of them may be found in behalf of them (the Commonwealth) against W. L. Thompson, charged with felony, shall not depart thence without leave of the Court, then the said recognizances to be void, otherwise to remain in full force, Virtue.

The Court doth allow R. A. Briscoe, J. L. Little, Joseph C. Williams, D. C. Little, Joel H. Gresham, J. D. Young, A. L. Keeling, Richard Spang, Charles C. Young, ten dollars each, for their services, and their term of Grand Jurors, to be paid out of the County, Lang.

This day came William Heth, who alleges that he is aggrieved by an entry in the land to Charles both made by S. Ray, Commissioner of the revenue for District No. 1 in East County in the year 1874, whereby he is charge with $12.07 taxes for the year 1874, as a tract of land containing 882 1/2 acres, described as being on Cedar Swamp, and thereupon the said William Heth moves the Court to exonerate him from the payment of the said part of the taxes so erroneously charged against him for the year 1874, whereupon was defended by J. B. Finney, attorney for the Commonwealth for said County, and the said S. Ray, the Commissioner who made the assessment was examined as a witness touching the application, and that application for redress against the erroneous entry, &c. made on this day for the first time, and it appearing that the applicant was erroneously charged with taxes as aforesaid for the year 1874, as also stated. All which the Court certifies in facts found upon the application aforesaid. On Consideration of which, and from said facts so found, the Court is satisfied that the said William Heth is erroneously charged on said books with taxes amounting to $12.07. Whereupon it is ordered that the said William Heth be exonerated from the payment of the said taxes, so erroneously charged, if not already paid, and if paid, that it be refunded to him.

It appearing to the Court that William Heth, has been erroneously assessed with taxes, having to the amount of $12.07 on two lands for the year 1874. It is ordered that he be released from the payment thereof, if not already paid, and if paid, that it be refunded to him.

On the motion of Justice Griffin who acted as executor of the estate of James Griffin, dec. who alleges that the estate of the said James Griffin is aggrieved by an entry in the land book made by S. Ray, Commissioner of the revenue for District No. 1 in East County, in the year 1874, whereby the estate of the said