

and after sometime returned into Court and upon their further delay the Judge found the Defendant guilty, & a pants battery upon the person of Josiah M. Comfort, and for the fine at Day Court. And it being demanded of the Prisoner, if anything he had to say why the Court should not send him to prison, he said he had to say why the Court and wishing him Offense is alleged by delay of judgment it is considered by the Court that the Prisoner with account against the Defendant the fine Capiped as aforesaid, and the Costs of this prosecution.

Ordered that the Court be adjourned until the first day of the next Term.

J. W. Wagonhart Judge