

entered into and acknowledged bond in the penalty of Five hundred dollars, conditioned as the law directs, which bond is Ordered to be recorded. And thereupon the Said Williams, took the Several Oaths required by law.

B. Woodard Barth, who was on the fourth Thursday in May 1877, duly elected Coroner of the Precinct in the Franklin Magisterial District, in the County of Southampton, by the qualified Voters of the Said District, for the term of two years, Commencing on the first day of July 1877, and after the said term of Office shall have expired, until their Successors are qualified to enter upon the discharge of the duties of said Office, this day appeared in Court and together with W. R. Griffing, the Secretary, acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Five hundred dollars, conditioned as the law directs, which bond is Ordered to be recorded. And thereupon the Said Barth, took the Several Oaths required by law.

Thomas J. Knickerbocker, M. Lankford & Charles W. Neekelant, who were on the fourth Thursday in May 1877, duly elected Justices of the Peace, in the Jerusalem Magisterial District, in the County of Southampton, by the qualified Voters of the Said District, for the term of two years, Commencing on the first day of July 1877, and after the said term of Office shall have expired, until their Successors are qualified, to enter upon the discharge of the duties of this said Office, this day appeared in Court, and qualified, by taking the Oaths required by law.

J. K. Oatis & Joshua Torken, who were on the fourth Thursday in May 1877, duly elected Justices of the Peace, in the Franklin Magisterial District, in the County of Southampton, by the qualified Voters of the Said District for the term of two years, Commencing on the first day of July 1877, and after the said term of Office shall have expired, until their Successors are qualified, to enter upon the discharge of the duties of their said Office, this day appeared in Court, and qualified, by taking the Oaths required by law.

M. T. Barber & William A. Bell, who were on the fourth Thursday in May 1877, duly elected Justices of the Peace, in the Berlin & Iron Magisterial District, in the County of Southampton, by the qualified Voters of the Said District, for the term of two years, Commencing on the first day of July 1877, and after the said term of Office shall have expired, until their Successors are qualified to enter upon the discharge of the duties of their said Office, this day appeared in Court and qualified by taking the Oaths required by law.

R. T. Parkhurst, Geo. M. Hughes & F. T. Ridley Jr. who were on the fourth Thursday in May 1877, duly elected Justices