

By Court of parties, it is Ordered that the License heretofore granted to Wm. J. Hunt for the privilege of keeping an Ordinary in the Town of Jerusalem in this County, from the 1st day of May 1877 to the 30th day of April 1878, be transferred to John Joseph P. Howard.

Ordered that B. T. Knight, Jas. D. Hill & J. E. Barlow (being first duly sworn for the purpose,) do appraise all the goods of Charles J. Harrison & H. P. Co. & return the appraisement under their hands as the law directs.

By Court of parties, it is Ordered that the License heretofore granted to J. H. & J. B. Turner, for the privilege of selling ardent spirits, Wine, &c. &c. &c. &c. any mixture of them, to be drunk at & from the place of Sale, at their Store, in this County, from the first day of May 1877 to the 30th day of April 1878, be transferred to John C. Turner.

James L. Smith who stands indicted of Murder, was led to the bar in Custody of the jailer of this County, & being arraigned & upon his arraignment pleaded not guilty, & is committed to the ~~custody of the Sheriff~~ ^{custody of the Sheriff} of this County & thereupon the said James L. Smith is remanded to jail to be held in the State Circuit Court.

This County being without a sufficient jail, the Court doth adopt the Jail of the Counties of Harrison & Norfolk, as the jail of this County until it can obtain a sufficient jail.

Wm. Hunt who stands indicted of felony, this day appeared in Court in discharge of his recognizance introduced before R. P. Barrett, a Justice of the Peace of this County, & was led to the bar in Custody of the Sheriff, & being there, arraigned pleaded not guilty, to the Indictments, & a panel of twelve persons of the County was summoned by the Sheriff, were examined by the Court, found free from all legal exceptions, & qualified to serve as jurors according to law, whereupon the accused peremptorily challenged four of the jurors & the remaining twelve to wit: John Brown, J. H. Johnson, J. P. H. P. Co., B. T. Knight, J. D. Hill, J. E. Barlow, J. J. Woodward, B. R. Griffin, J. A. Richardson, Wm. R. Barham, J. S. Applewhite & Geo. S. Camps, when being elected, tried & sworn, the trial of & upon the premises to speak & having heard the evidence upon their Oath do say, "We the Jury find the Prisoner not guilty," And thereupon proclamation being made as the manner is, of seeking further appearing or being attested, the said Wm. Hunt, it is considered by the Court, that the said Wm. Hunt, be acquitted & discharged of the felony of which he stands charged, and go thereof without day.

James A. Harris, B. T. & M. Lewis & Kelly Carrow, who in Court previously acknowledged themselves indebted to the Government of Virginia in the sum of one hundred dollars, each, of their Personal goods, Chattels, Lands & Tenements to be liable to the use of the Government, yet upon this condition, each of them James A. Harris, B. T. & M. Lewis & Kelly Carrow, have made their personal appearance before the Judge of this Court, in personal opening at the Call of your Court, and as they & each of them have on behalf of the Government against James A. Harris, B. T. & M. Lewis & Kelly Carrow, do not desire to have of the said Court, the other way.