

John W. Peabody against
Charles Hunt

Appellant

Upon an appeal from the Judgment of a Justice of the Peace, recovered by the Appellee the 18th day of May 1877.

Appellee

Appellee against the Appellant the 18th day of May 1877.
This day came the parties by their Attorneys, who being fully heard the evidence adduced mutually considered, it being to the Court that the judgment of the Justice is erroneous. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the same be reversed, and the Court giving such as said Justice ought to have given, doth Order that the said action be dismissed, and that the Appellant recover against the Appellee the sum of fifteen dollars, and that the Appellant be allowed to withdraw his bond from the proceedings in this case, by filing a Certified Copy thereof.
