

On motion of James Ezra Gillette, Guardian of Mollie or Mary Gillette the Court, having its special attention called to the Account of the said J. E. Gillette as Guardian of the said Mollie or Mary Gillette as Guardian of the said Mollie or Mary Gillette, which was confirmed term 1879, of this Court and being of opinion that the expenditures made by said Guardian though in excess of said wards income, were judicious, necessary, and proper, doth hereby approve and confirm the same.

On motion of Henry Channell, the Court having its special attention called to the accounts of the said Channell as Guardian of Martha V. Cobb and Sarah J. Cobb, confirmed at the term 1879, of this Court and observing that the expenditures made by said Guardian for the education and support of his said wards exceeded the income of said wards, and being of opinion that the said expenditures so made were judicious, necessary, and proper, doth hereby approve and confirm the same.

Ordered that the Court be adjourned till the first day of next term

W. W. Whitcomb Judge