On the Special report of Commissioner Taylor filed Sep 22^d 1880, appearing that J. B. Pope One of the Executors of H. P. Pope dec. has in his hands belonging to the Estate of said Pope & requesting further that the said Executor will collect other funds belonging to said Estate, & desiring to be instructed by the Court in what manner he shall invest the same. The Court don't order that the said J. B. Pope act as aforesaid invest the same of $20,000, and what funds he may collect during the year 1880, belonging to the said Estate in Registered Bonds of either the Cities of Norfolk, Portsmouth, Portsmouth, Rochester, Lowell and Danville, provided that in no case is he authorized to pay a higher premium than five per cent; or if the Executor can find judicious investments for said funds in real Estate he is authorized to invest on this security provided the same is free from incumbrances, wholly situated in this State except at thirty per cent of said three annual bonds, and the amount loaned to be secured by Trust Deeds, in which, if the loaned be a married man, his wife shall join.
