

213

Ex^d

now this Indenture made in due liberty right of memory in the year of our lords Eighteen hundred six, between the said Benjamin Lawrence of the first part and John Lee of the second part & Jacob Darden the trustee of the third part Witnesseth, that the said Benjamin Lawrence for and in consideration of the promises and of one dollar to him in hand paid at or before the sealing & delivery of these presents the receipt whereof he hereby acknowledges he has granted conveyed & confirmed unto the said Jacob Darden one bay horse three years old two feather beds & furniture To have and to hold the said bay horse two feather beds & furniture unto the said Jacob Darden his heirs assigns or assigns on the following trust, that is to say if the said Benjamin Lawrence his heirs or assigns shall well and truly satisfy contents of pay unto the said John Lee his heirs or assigns the said sixty one dollars and seventy four cents legal interest thereon from the date of these presents till the said sum be paid on or before the twenty fifth of December ensuing the date hereof with all costs attending these presents, then in that case the trust hereby created shall entirely cease and determine & the property hereby conveyed, shall again vest in and revert to the s.
 Benjamin Lawrence his heirs or assigns, but if the said sixty one dollars and seventy four cents or any part thereof or if the interest thereof shall remain due and unpaid on the day of payment herein before mentioned it shall then in that case be lawful, and the said Trustee is hereby empowered to sell the said bay horse two beds and furniture to the highest bidder at publick auction for any money, first giving six days notice of the time and place of sale by advertisements and apply the net proceeds of the said sale towards the discharge of the sum so in arrears with the interest and costs of payment and the surplus if any to pay over to the said Benjamin Lawrence his heirs or assigns and the said Benjamin Lawrence hereby covenants and agrees for himself his heirs or assigns that he will well & truly pay the said sixty one dollars and seventy four cents when due, or at the day of payment before stated and the interest with legal costs attending these presents unto the said John Lee his heirs or assigns, and the said John Lee covenants and agrees for himself his heirs and assigns that the said Benjamin Lawrence and his heirs may hold and occupy the property hereby conveyed until payment of the said Jacob Darden for him self and his heirs executors and administrators, covenants with both parties and their heirs respectively that he will faithfully execute the trust and perform the day and year aforesaid -

213