

349

the parish of St. Lawrence and bounded as follows to wit beginning at a black oak stump on a low in the edge line then walking the said line east forty seven poles to a black oak thence West the said poles to a pine then a steel west three poles to a white oak thence to only five poles to a pine thence six poles to a white oak thence nine poles to a white oak thence forty five poles to a white oak thence seven poles to a pine thence nineteen poles to a willow oak thence eleven poles to a pine thence east thirty seven poles to a oak thence thirty eight poles to a white oak thence thirty seven poles to a white oak a corner of the land formerly belonging to Benjamin Williams dec thence along the said line east twenty two poles to a white oak a corner of Jacob Barnes line thence along the said Barnes's line fifteen poles West West thirty poles to a pine thence South six poles east twelve poles to a pine thence South fifty one poles east one hundred and fifty six to a black oak sapling and thence to the first station it being the same land whereon said Cum (Drake formerly lived and which said said the said Cum Drake and wife said also conveyed to Linnus Hunt father to the said Lewis P. Hunt partly to their parents by deed bearing date the 14th day of October 1790 and which descended to said Lewis P. Hunt partly to their parents by the death of his father Samuel Hunt also on their tract or parcel of land containing by estimation thirty acres be the same more or less lying lying and being situated in the parish of St. Lawrence and County of Southampton in the North Co. of Longueue swamp and bounded as follows beginning at a pine corner of this tract and Barnaby Drake son thence Linnus Hunt's line to a black oak in George Washingtons son line thence said Washington line to a pine a corner line of said tract and said Washington thence bounding side or said Washington line to a sweet gum stand ing in branch a corner of William Washington thence his line to a pine stand ing on the main road thence down the said road to the first station it being a tract or parcel of land which Linnus Hunt purchased of Nathaniel Drake and wife by deed bearing date the 10th day of January 1790 and which said land descended to the said Lewis P. Hunt partly to their parents by the death of his father Linnus Hunt containing in the whole two hundred and eighty four acres be the same more or less To have and to hold the above said tracts and parcels of land and every of their appurtenances unto him the said James Mitchell his heirs and assigns forever and the said Lewis P.