Gresham
To Vaughan

(This Indenture, made this 15th day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, between James Gresham of Southampton County and State of Virginia of the one part, and Henry Vaughan of said County and State of the other part, Witnesseth, that the said James Gresham for and in the consideration of forty seven thousand five hundred dollars, Shingles and piece of land adjoining the said Gresham land, that he now lives on which lot or parcel of land will fully appear from a Deed executed from said Henry Vaughan to him, the said land being in the County and State aforesaid the beginning and boundary (to wit) beginning at a pine corner tree and Old Cross Road, thence along said boundary to a pine corner between Kinchen Solts and Shadrach Wau-ghan land, thence along Kinchen Solts & said land to the run of the swamp swamps, to a pine corner between Kinchen Solts and said land, thence down the run of said swamp to a spruce tree between Elizabeth Gardner, Abner and Hester, & said Henry Vaughan land, thence around to the first station to have and to hold the said land and all improvements thereon contained, and for myself my heirs, my heirs, Executors and assigns do warrant and defend the right title of the said land to Henry Vaughan and his heirs, Executors, assigns, forever, the said land by estimation contains seventy five acres, to the same more or less, to him & his heirs forever, for myself my heirs I do acknowledge myself to be fully paid & satisfied, and witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this day and date first written. In the presence of

James Gresham
