At a court held for the county of Southampton on the 16th of Octr. 1820 It appearing to the court that William Whitelaw and John Hancock two of the subscribing witnesses to this deed are dead and Catharine Whitelaw and Nancy Stephenson being sworn depose that they believe the names of the said witnesses to be in their own proper hand writing whereupon the said deed is ordered to be recorded continued for further proof And at a court continued and held for the county of S^{amp} on the 16th of January 1821. Benjamin Hancock appeared in court and being sworn appeared in court and being sworn said that he made the Deed in question and the name of Ephraim Farrelth a subscribing witness thereto and that at having been 36 years ago he has no recollection of seeing the said Ephraim Farrelth make his mark to the said deed as a witness but is confident that he did so because he is confident that he should not have mistaken the name of S^{Farrelth} unless he had made his mark as a witness thereto whereupon it is ordered that the said deed be recorded having been before proved as to the two other witnesses subscribing witnesses thereto
