

I Smith and James C. Harrison hereby and free from loss or damage by reason of this second securityship, et or this Endenture all respects that for and in Consideration of the premises and also for the further Consideration of One dollar to the said James Coggins in hand paid by the said Harrison Parker, at and before the making and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged by the said James Coggins, hath, given granted bargained sold aliened enfeoffed released and confirmed, and by these presents doth give grant bargain and sell alien enfeoff released and confirmed, and said Harrison Parker, his heirs and assigns forever, all that tract of land (other was the said James Coggins now resides in) and all other Land in which I have any interest and containing by estimation two hundred acres be the same more or less also three Wagon two gigs and harness two carts and wheels also stock of all kind consisting of about thirty head of Cattle twenty head of Hogs and ten head of sheep also five garden lots and furniture and household and Kitchen furniture of every description with all and doing also the appurtenances to the said tract or parcel of land belonging or in any wise appertaining and all estate, right title and interest of the said James Coggins in and to the said granted or intended to be hereby granted tract or parcel of land and premises To have and to hold the said hereby granted or intended to be hereby granted tract or parcel of land and premises with its appurtenances together with the aforesaid Wagon gigs harness Carts and wheels, Cattle, hogs, sheep, garden lots, household and Kitchen furniture, unto the said Harrison Parker, his heirs and assigns forever (upon Trust) Nevertheless the said Harrison Parker, his heirs and assigns shall permit the said James Coggins to remain in quiet possession of said tract of land and other property hereby conveyed and take the profit thereof to his own use until required by the said Smith and Harrison to sell whereupon the said Harrison Parker shall after advising the time and place of sale shall sell such of the said property as is herein conveyed as shall be necessary and sufficient to pay the said debt with interest that is due to the said Smith and also to pay the said several debts for which the said Smith and Harrison is bound as aforesaid. I do not here remark but it is particularly observed that all the bonds whereon the said Smith is bound as security is to be paid or settled first, and then Harrison and not of the monies from which sale shall after satisfying the charges thereof and all other expenses allowing the premises payable the said Henry T. Smith and James C. Harrison such sum or sums as they may have paid or been damaged as aforesaid and the lawful interest which may have arisen thereon, and the remainder of any shall be paid unto the said James Coggins his heirs and assigns forever: But if the above mentioned bond and bonds should be faithfully discharged so that no default of payment be made then the premises to be sold or due to remain in force force and virtue: Notwithstanding of the said parties to these presents have hereunto set their hands and affixed their seals the day and year first above written sealed and delivered In presence of Robert J. Parker
 David W. Savage

James Coggins (Seal)
 Harrison Parker (Seal)
 H. T. Smith (Seal)
 James C. Harrison (Seal)