

little more interest in the following property to wit: On half of a Section of the whole of a large tract of land called Petersfield by Keweenaw, a bay mare named Mary and bay colts by Chandeleur, seven years old, 1837 and her six children named, Reddy, Sam, Sam, Mary, and Lucinda, the best of every description and embracing that which is growing as well as sweet on the plantation which the said Jos B Whitbread rents from James Strong for the present year, five horses viz one dark horse, one dark mare, one bay mare one bay and one mare and on each colt called Mary, all the cows and all the hogs on the plantation and such and all the household and kitchen furniture of the said Jos B Whitbread consisting of the following articles to wit: Three beds, one without dining table, two small mahogany tables one large flag table chairs and various other articles a debt due from Pleasant Thompson of Philadelphia Ohio to wit: Jos B Whitbread of about four hundred dollars secured by by bond the date of which is not recollecting, and a debt due from Adam Smith of Jackson County Virginia to Jos B Whitbread of about one hundred and fifty dollars secured by bond the date of which is not recollect-ing. To have and to hold the said several articles of property to have the said Jos B Whitbread his heirs and assigns forever. After Trust notwithstanding and for the following purposes to wit: That the said Jos B Whitbread continue to permit the said Jos B Whitbread his heirs or assigns to retain the possession, use & enjoyment of the said property until he shall be required by the said Jos B Whitbread the Allen Sons, and Messrs C. M. Mott of the three part or any or either of them, to make sale thereof or any part thereof according to the prescriptions and stipulations herein after provided to wit: That it shall be the duty of the said Jos B Whitbread whenever he shall be required by the said Jos B Whitbread Allen Sons, Messrs C. M. Mott or any or either of them, or any or either of their executors, administrators or assigns of the said Jos B Whitbread debts or any part of them shall remain unpaid by the said Jos B Whitbread Whitbread his heirs, executors, or administrators to proceed forthwith or to cause his executors or administrators at the door of the Court house, to sell at public auction to the highest bidder or for cash (or in such other more liberal terms as the parties respectively may agree to and require of him) the said property real estate, or as much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy and discharge the said debts or such part of them as may not have been previously paid by the said Jos B Whitbread his heirs, executors or administrators, together with all the expenses necessarily incident to the execution of the said Trust, and declares the proceeds in satisfaction of the said Jos B Whitbread debts and charges as aforesaid, and upon the further Trust that should the said Jos B Whitbread, his heirs executors or administrators discharge the said Jos B Whitbread debts without the necessity of the sale of the whole or any part of the property herein conveyed that the said Jos B Whitbread will thereupon release to the said Whitbread his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns the said property or so much thereof as may be necessary in such manner as to be or under such deed. On February when of the parties herein have subscribed their names and affixed their seals to these presents the day and date above written

Signed sealed & delivered In presence of
S. M. Chubbuck us to Jos B Whitbread Rich. S. Nicholson us to Jos B Whitbread Joseph R. Rouse us to Jos B Whitbread

J. B. Whitbread Seal
Joseph Turner Seal

Southampton County In the Clerk's Office This 2nd day of April 1835 This Indenture was acknowledged by Joseph B Whitbread one of the parties herein & acknowledged as us to him and in the 20th day of April 1835 it was acknowledged by Joseph Turner all party thereto and acknowledged as to him. And at a Court held for this County of said date the 20th day of April 1835 the said Jos B Whitbread was entered upon the proceedings of the day Justice James Rockwell C. C.