Witness
 to
 James H. Gentry
 Esq.
 This Indenture made and entered into this day of 1840 between John I. Hines of the first part Nicholas M. Stoll of the second part and Daniel H. Simmons and James J. Gentry of the third part all of the County of Southampton. Witnesseth that whereas the said Daniel H. Simmons and James J. Gentry have become and are bound as securities for the said John I. Hines in two bonds executed to Edmund C. Goble administrator and Commissioner of the said of our husband and thirty dollars and fifty cents each, one due the 26th day of February 1841 and the other due the 26th day of February 1842 and the said John I. Hines being willing and desirous to indemnify and save harmless the said Simmons and Gentry for all loss whatever in consequence of said securityship but agreed to convey the property herein after mentioned unto the said Nicholas M. Stoll in trust to be sold for that purpose. Now therefore the said John I. Hines in consideration of the premises aforesaid as well as for the further consideration
