the first part, John P. Fitzhugh of the second & T. Tazewell of the third part Witnesseth that the S. Joseph C. Smith is justly indebted to the said John P. Fitzhugh in the sum of twenty two dollars in a bond bearing the 21st July 1843, which in examination will more fully appear, and for the further sum of one dollar to the said Smith in hand paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, he has and he doth hereby obligant and bind, and by these presents do grant, bargain & sell, to the said Tazewell, as trustee, all his growing crops of any kind, whatever, consisting of cotton, potatoes, water, bran, potatoes, & peas & cotton, Tobacco and the hold, the said and described property upon trust, nevertheless, that the said Tazewell shall as soon as conveniently he can, after having ascertained the time & place of the sale of the property before mentioned in some public place, proceed to sell the same to the highest bidder, for the best price that can be obtained, and out of the money arising from the sale on the first place to pay and satisfy all reasonable charges, attending such sale, and then the debt above mentioned, and the residue of any arising from such sale to pay to the use of the said Smith his order or his legal representatives. In witness whereof the parties concerned have hereunto set their hands and seals the day, 1845.
