John P. R. Edwards ss.

This Indenture made and entered into the seventh day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty seven between Augustus T. Westbrook and Emily his wife of the first part John Prince of the second part and James Ingersoll of the third part: Whereas the said Augustus T. Westbrook is indebted to the said James Ingersoll by bond due the day in the sum of four hundred and fifty six dollars and twenty two cents and whereas by the said Westbrook is willing and desirous effectually to secure the payment of the said sum of money with the accruing interest thereon. This Indenture Witnesseth that for and in consideration of the promise and of the sum of one dollar to them the said Augustus T. Westbrook and Emily his wife in hand paid by the said John Prince before the sealing and delivery of these presents the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged that the said Westbrook and wife have bargained and sold and by these presents do bargain sell and convey unto the said James the following property to wit: all the right title and interest of the said Westbrook and wife in the tract of land whereof Andrew Biggs and wife
