

purchaser of the said Richard Kello a piece of land containing twenty one acres more or less and paid in full for the same, but owing to the death of the said Kello soon after, a deed was never given, but the said twenty one acres has ever since been included in a tract held by the said Bond and conveyed by deed of gift by said Bond and wife, as will appear of record in the Clerk's office of Southampton County, to his son Samuel M. Bond, and which said land was conveyed by Deed of Trust to James St. St. Bond for the benefit of William D. Hood and when sold purchased by him. Now this indenture is made to the said Hood by the above named parties to secure him a full and equitable right to the above named twenty one acres of land, knowing that the facts above set forth are true, that the said Patrick Bond did purchase and fully pay for the said land, to Richard Kello, and as such we do hereby for ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, all right, title and interest in and to the said twenty one acres of land and vest the same in the said William D. Hood his heirs and assigns forever, and we do furthermore hereby depose the title to the said land against the claim or claims of all and every person or persons whatsoever. In witness whereof we hereunto set our hands and affix our seals this day, and year first above written
