

Council This agreement made this 7th day of June between Indiana M. J. Corbett and to 3d apt William L. Corbett, both of the County of Southampton and State of Virginia.
 Council Winchester, that whereas, I, Indiana M. J. Corbett having purchased sundries of property sold under execution and Hunt sale, the property of Wm. L. Corbett my father, and for the purpose of furnishing my little sisters Saluda P., Martha C., Rebecca L., Mary J., Calageth E. W., + Margaret L. Corbett with a home and support and also that my father might be engaged in some business by which he might support himself. Therefore I have put, placed on the plantation where my father resides all of said property, To wit: one horse call'd Gem. Thirteen head of cattle, a pair of pigs household and Kitchen furniture two pr. Cart wheels, Farming utensils of every description and other property too tedious to mention, also I have hired a negro fellow and placed on said plantation, under the immediate direction and management of my father Wm. L. Corbett, for him to make a crop, for the support of my little sisters and myself and for the further purpose of supporting my old father. Therefore I do by these presents put place under his entire direction during his my father Wm. L. Corbett's life the whole of the property above named to be managed, controlled and directed and governed by him for me during his life under the following terms to wit: that all the crops made by him with said property after supporting my sisters and myself together with his support and family whatever neat profits may remain from the sale of crop or otherwise he shall pay the same to me for my exclusive benefit and I further agree that I will from year to year hire and put on said plantation under his management, at least one good, strong, able hand, and now if I think them need-say, in order that a support may be made as aforesaid reserving to myself after paying all hire, expenses and my father's attending to the farm, the neat profits of the same, all of which agreement I do hereby bind myself to comply fully, and that whenever I or either of my sisters shall marry, that our right of support shall cease, but that all the profits from said property shall still continue to be paid to me, hereby authorising my father in my name to transact for me as my agent all business relative to the crops and property aforesaid and make report to me of the same, and further although I have hereby put and placed said property under his direction and government during his life still I retain my title and right to the same and at his death my father, I claim the same and all the increase thereof, and it is so agree-by understood by this agreement that no property I have hereby placed in father Wm. L. Corbett's possession shall be subject to pay any of his debts neither the crop or any parts or parts thereof, hereby reserving to myself if my attempt be made to take the same for that purpose that it shall be lawful for me to prevent the same, as the intention of the agreement is for the express purposes hereby set forth, we and each of us do hereby bind ourselves on and each of our heirs to truly comply with all the conditions of this agreement, and the said Indiana M. J. Corbett in case of my marriage bind myself and those I may marry to let the whole of the aforesaid property remain in the quiet possession of my father Wm. L. Corbett during his life under his direction the same as if such marriage were not taken place, hereby relinquishing all right to dispossess him of the same until his death, all of which agreement the true
