This instrument made and entered into this 4th of February one thousand eight hundred and fifty one between Mark T. Pitt and Edward S. Turner Executors of the last will and Testament of Simpson B. Reese dec^d and Mary Reese widow of said deceased Testament part, and George W. Pitt of the second part, Whereas by act of Assembly Mary Reese the widow may renounce the provisions of said will within one year from the time of the admission of the will to probate, and thereby receive what the Law would give her, To wit: one third part of the Land and negroes of which the testator did dispose, but being desirous of accepting the provisions of said will and join in this conveyance, not whereas the said testator in his last will aforesaid which was duly admitted to probate and of record in the Clerk's Office of Northampton County Court, amongst other things desired that his Executors do sell the plantation lying in the Counties of Northampton Virginia and Northampton North Carolina known as the McQueen Land also the same tract of Land adjoining the same purchased from Eldridge C. Magot on such terms as they may think most advantageous, and whereas the above named Mark T. Pitt and Edward S. Turner the Executors aforesaid appointed by said will being satisfied as such and in execution of the power conferred on them after duly consulting with the provisions of the will, have sold at public auction to the said George W. Pitt all that portion of the land of the said testator situate in the Counties of Northampton Va. and Northampton, N.C., known as the McQueen Land, also the same tract of Land adjoining the same purchased from Eldridge C. Magot contained within the boundaries hereinafter set forth. This instrument therefore witnesseth that for and in consideration of the premium and of the sum of six thousand one hundred dollars to them seemed to be paid in hand cash and the balance in two equal annual instalments by the said
