An Indenture, made this 16th day of September in the year eighteen hundred and fifty one, between John E. Egell of the first part, William E. Harris of the second part, and Abel Harris of the third part. Whereas the said John E. Egell is justly indebted to the said Abel Harris in the sum of two hundred dollars due and payable one hundred dollars on the 25th day of December 1851, and one hundred dollars to be paid on the 25th day of December 1852, by which bearing date on the 16th day of September 1857, the payment whereof the said John E. Egell is willing and desirous to avoid. Now this Indenture witnesseth that for more consideration of the premises and the further consideration of one dollar in hand paid by the said William E. Harris, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged by the said John E. Egell and by these presents grant, bargain, sell and convey unto the said W. E. Harris his heirs and assigns a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Southampton and bounded as follows: by the Land of Isaac Davis, William Driver and Corbally and others, containing by estimation one hundred forty eight and three fourths acres be the same more or less, together with all the privileges and appurtenances to the said land in any wise appertaining, or belonging. To have and to hold to him the said William E. Harris his heirs and assigns forever. And the said John E. Egell for himself, his heirs, Executors
