

explained to her, she acknowledged the same to be her act and declares that she has willingly executed the same and does not wish to retract it, both parties thereto, and thereupon Deed was admitted to record.

Teste,

D. R. Edwards, C. C.

Appelwhite
& 3
Appelwhite

This deed made this the 2^d day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty two, between Benjamin Appelwhite of the one part, and Walter S. Appelwhite of the other part, witnesseth that the said Benjamin Appelwhite for and in consideration of the natural love and affection which he bears towards the said Walter S. Appelwhite, has bargained and loaned unto the said Walter S. Appelwhite, the following property to wit: one horse, 1 gig, 1 cart, three beds and furniture household furniture to hold and to have during the life of the said Benjamin Appelwhite, and at his said death, he gives and grants the aforesaid property to the said Walter S. Appelwhite, to him and his heirs forever. In testimony whereof, the said Benjamin Appelwhite and Walter S. Appelwhite have hereunto set their hands and seals this the day and year above mentioned.

Teste,

John H. Stith

D. R. Appelwhite.

Benjamin Appelwhite

Walter S. Appelwhite

(Seal)

(Seal)

Smithson County. In the Clerk's office the 5th day of November 1852. This Deed of Loan was proved as to Benjamin Appelwhite & Walter S. Appelwhite by the oath of D. R. Appelwhite a subscribing witness thereto; and on the 6th day of November 1852, said deed was further proved as to the said Benjamin & Walter S. Appelwhite by the oath of John H. Stith also a subscribing witness thereto and admitted to record.

Teste,

D. R. Edwards, C. C.

Hargrave
& 3
Davis & Co.

Whereas Edward Hargrave is justly indebted to Messrs J. Davis & Co. in the sum of Ten dollars and thirty seven cents and the said Edward Hargrave being anxious to secure the said Messrs J. Davis & Co. Therefore this deed made this 13th day of November 1852, between Edward Hargrave of the first part, Augustus J. Stephenson of the second part and Messrs J. Davis & Co. of the third part: Witnesseth that the said Edward Hargrave for and in consideration of the sum of One dollar to him in hand paid by the said Augustus J. Stephenson, hath bargained, sold, and conveyed to the said Augustus J. Stephenson his heirs, and assigns the following property, to wit: 3 beds and furniture, 1 spinning wheel, 1 table, 1 blanket, 5 chairs, 1 loom, 1 spinning wheel, 1 small axe, 1 pot & wheels and cooking utensils. To have and to hold the said property for the only proper use and behoof of the said Augustus J. Stephenson his heirs and assigns for the benefit of the said Messrs J. Davis & Co. in trust that notwithstanding whenever the said Edward Hargrave shall pay or cause to be paid the aforesaid sum of Ten dollars & thirty seven cents with all the necessary cost and expense attending the same then and in that event this obligation shall be null and void - if not, then the said Augustus J. Stephenson at the request of the said Messrs J. Davis & Co. by giving ten days notice as the Law directs, shall proceed to sell to the highest bidder for cash the property, or so much as may be necessary to pay the aforesaid debt and such expenses.