

Books and accounts then due to the said A. L. Bond, And whereas the said A. L. Bond, was at the time of executing and recording the said Book of Gift, justly indebted to divers persons in various of the said Kingdom of Ireland, the payment of which said debts it was never the purpose or intention of the said Joseph L. Bond to make or in any manner to compound; and which said debts after more specially set forth. Now This said Certificate, that the said A. L. Bond and the said Thomas R. Bond for and in consideration of the sum of five hundred and in the first consideration of one dollar to each of them paid by the said parties herein after named, the receipt of which said sum is hereby acknowledged, doth grant and convey to the said Joseph B. Bond and the said John J. Hendon, Trustees, all of the property of every kind whatsoever which was granted and given and devised by the said Joseph to the said Thomas, and which has been already specially set forth herein; In trust, to secure the payment of the following debts, to wit; One bond for Five hundred Dollars, subject to credit, due to Bond & Popl. due and dated January 10th 1851; One bond for Three hundred Dollars, subject to credit, made payable to Mary Harris, due and dated April 17th 1853; One bond for One hundred and four dollars, + nineteen cents, made payable to Mary Harris, due and dated January 1st 1859; One bond for Sixty eight dollars, dated December 25th 1851, and due December 25th 1852, made payable to George W. Bond, and now held by Thomas M. Skirrow, administrator of David Bond, one bond for fifty eight Dollars, dated December 27th 1859, and due December 25th 1860, made payable to David Bond and now held by Thomas M. Skirrow, his administrator; One judgment in favor of Joseph S. Smith, obtained at the November Term A. D. 1857, of the Circuit Court of Southampton County for one hundred and seventy nine Dollars and forty cents, subject to credit, amounting to about one hundred and thirty seven dollars; and to secure the payment of all other debts, if any, which may have been due and owing by the said Joseph L. Bond, at the time of the making and recording the said Book of Gift, whatever such debts and herein specially mentioned or not. All of the debts intended to be secured by this Book of Gift and to be paid solably. But the said Thomas R. Bond is to enjoy peaceable and quiet possession of all of the property of every kind herein conveyed, so long as any State Laws, State or Federal, or any Military Orders or other authority may prohibit the collection of debts, and for four months after the expiration of any such Laws, or Orders; The Object of this Book of Gift being to place the creditors of the said Joseph L. Bond, existing at the time the said Book of Gift was made, precisely in the same position and no other, they they would have occupied if the said Book of Gift from the said Joseph to the said Thomas R. Bond had never been made. And the said creditors may proceed to collect interest, quarterly falling due, or any other portion of such debts as may be allowed by the Laws and Orders now in force or which may hereafter be made and issued, by a sale of so much of the said property as may be necessary, and no more, as if the said Book of Gift had never been made. But as to all debts contracted by the said Joseph L. Bond since the making of the said Book of Gift, and as to all other purposes, except as herein excepted, the said Book of Gift shall remain in full force and virtue. Witness the following Signatures and Seals.

Signed, Sealed, acknowledged } and delivered in presence of us. }

A. L. Bond, (Seal)
Thos. R. Bond, (Seal)
John J. Hendon, (Seal)
Joseph B. Bond, (Seal)