

Southampton County In the Clerk's Office, January the 31st 1870.
This Court of Equity found John E. Applewhite to Benjamin S. Applewhite, Trustee for the benefit of John E. Applewhite and others, was this day acknowledged by the said John E. Applewhite to the his act and deed and admitted to record. Amount of the Sub. Dec. of the United States to the amount of fifty Cents, being affords thereof and duly Committed.

James Taylor, Sec.

State of North Carolina, Alamance County; Now all come by these presents, that the Edwin W. Beale and Eliza Jane his wife of Alamance County and State of North Carolina, have made, constituted and appointed, and by these presents do make, constitute and appoint out in and place and stead part and despite Corrie Morris of Southampton County, and State of Virginia, our true and lawful attorney, for us, and in our place, names and stead, to grant, bargain and sell all what highways of which William L. Williams died seized unto perpetuity, lying and being in the County of Southampton and State of Virginia, with its appurtenances, and all our estate, rights, title and interest therein, unto such person or persons, and for such price or prices as he or she or they think proper, and also for us and in our names, place and stead, and as our proper act and deed, to sign seal, deliver and acknowledge all such deed or deed of conveyance as shall be necessary for the absolute granting and apportioning of the premises unto the purchaser or purchasers in fee simple - In testimony whereof we do hereunto set our hand and seal this 7th day of December A.D. 1869.

W. E. Beale,
Eliza J. Beale

Edwin W. Beale,

Eliza J. Beale,

North Carolina, Alamance County, In the Probate Court, At this the 7th day of December in the year 1869, before me W. A. Albright, Judge of Probate for Alamance County, personally came E. W. Beale and Eliza J. Beale, his wife, the persons described in and who signed the foregoing Power of Attorney and personally acknowledged the due execution thereof, for the purposes therein expressed. And furthermore the said Eliza J. Beale being by me privately examined apart from her said husband declaring her voluntary apart therefrom, acknowledged that she had executed the same freely and without any fear or compulsion of her said husband and that she does not voluntarily apart therefrom. Whereupon her the said Deed and this Certificate be Registered.

W. A. Albright.

Probate Judge.

Southampton County In the Clerk's Office, January the 31st 1870.
This Court of Equity found E. W. Beale and Eliza J. Beale to be his good, together with the Certificate thereof amount, was this day received and admitted to record. Amount of the Sub. Dec. of the United States to the amount of 2^{1/2} Cents and docket being affords thereof and duly Committed.

James Taylor, Sec.

This Deed made this 31st day of January 1870, between David W. Ackland and Mildred M. Ackland his wife, of the first part, and James S. Taylor, the Trustee, of the second part, and Henry M. Batts of the third part,