

that in consideration of the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars the said John H. Voth, debt paid into the said James J. Gordon, all of the value interest and more he may hereafter have in the said of said formerly owned by Court. Being then and known as Davis Lewis Clark and then made by James Voth and and bounded by the hands of said Daughter, said Piquant, Henry Henry to said Voth and perhaps others; and by the said the said John H. Voth, Comrade to Comrade, all of his value interest the way, have found the said of right Voth to the said James Voth before his death, so that the way hereafter passed to said Piquant from any other Davis children; and the said grantor releases to the said grantor all of his claim upon the said property. Witness the following date and signature this 3^d day of November 1870

Witness

Samuel Piquant

J. P. Piquant

Mills St. Voth (Seal)

Contrafactum Amalgam, In the Clerk's Office, November the 9th 1870.
These said of Piquant and also found Mills St. Voth to James J. Gordon, were found as to the said Mills St. Voth by the Clerk of Samuel Piquant and J. P. Piquant, the said Voth, at Jackson, and admitted to records. A stamp of the said one of the 1st to the amount of fifty cents, being affixed should be duly considered.

John James R. Taylor Sec.

These said made this 9th day of November 1870, before John Gordon Jr., Commissioner as Commissioner of the said said and known all Vagabonds of the said said, whereas on the day of November in the year 1861, it was decreed and ordered by the Board of Commissioners in and between between said then depending in said said Adams' Account all Vagabonds. Remitted to the Clerk of Henry J. Piquant. That the said said said for Commissioner, appointed by the said Board, should sell at public auction the said said of the said J. B. Vagabond debt largely and proposed. Upon the following terms to wit: One fifth of the purchased money in cash and the balance in Credit of two and two years, with interest four days of late, after having given thirty days notice of said sale by advertisement at the said House and various other places, following in said County and also twice in writing for three days in two or more newspapers published in the cities of Rochester and Poughkeepsie. And whereas the said Commissioner in pursuance of the said decree did on the 31st day of December 1861, at the premises, offer for sale at public auction the said after described tract of lands, being a portion of the said Adams' no said said, having advertised the same place and time as directed, it shall take the said tract of land was struck off to Kenneth H. Vagabond for the sum of $1000.00 and said said said said, that being the highest bid for the same and whereas the said said having had referred to the said Board, the said by its order of the day of delay in the year 1869, confirmed the said sale and decreed that all the payment of the said purchased money to the said Commissioner John Gordon for the said Commissioner should convey the said land to the said purchaser and the whole of the purchased money having been paid to the said Commissioner according to the said decree and therefore the said