

Executed at in the presence of
for a Clerk

November 18th 1870. I being a bearer the payment of a certain debt due to Henry Ferguson for the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, by deed signed by the said Elizabeth Ferguson bearing and date, which says (Said Elizabeth French herself became grasping to see the said bond of said for the payment of the said debt, she said French then gave a deed being copy of the said bond and signed by said Elizabeth Ferguson, and she then came to the Sheriff's office for said, and after paying all the expenses attending the execution of this said deed, she gave the said James Bond and the said James Ferguson, and they legal representation, and the copying of any deed signed by the said Elizabeth Ferguson or by order, or signed by said French and she the day and year first above mentioned.

Elizabeth C. Ferguson, (Said)
Samuel Vack, (Said)

District Court, in the Clerk's Office, January 10th 1871 Read and found true the bill of Henry Ferguson to Samuel Vack, (Said) for the sum of Henry Ferguson, and admitted to said Elizabeth C. Ferguson and Samuel Vack, and admitted to said Elizabeth C. Ferguson of the said sum of the bill to the amount of fifty dollars, being about in any manner.

John C. Campbell, Clerk

The said read this twentieth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, before me of Superior Court, of the first part, and James B. Stewart of the second part, who first as of said Henry Margaret E. Bond, and of said said admitted to second in the Clerk's Office of the said Court of Northampton County on the 18th day of December A.D. 1870, goods and things, among other property, all the right, title, and interest of any kind whatsoever, in possession or possession, in law or equity, which the said Margaret may have in or to the land of said in which the two records, it being the same which was formerly owned by the deceased Captain John Bond, supposed to contain three hundred acres, more or less, and bound by the lines of John W. Parlett, King White, the heirs of William E. Bond, of William E. Stewart and others, reference to which said Deed of said is hereby expressly made, and whereas said James B. Stewart, the first named in the said Deed of said did refer to said, as land, and whereas the Clerk of said Court did after legal notice duly given to the parties interested appear at the October Term A.D. 1870, of the said Court, the said John W. Parlett, in place of the said King White, and whereas the said James B. Stewart in pursuance of said notice and appointment did, after having duly demanded the said same estate in the said Deed of said Court, and demand, sell the same at public auction, on the premises, on the first day of December, A.D. 1870, and the said James B. Stewart became the purchaser for the sum of one hundred and twenty five dollars, which said sum he has paid to the said Elizabeth C. Ferguson, the said Elizabeth C. Ferguson, the said Elizabeth C. Ferguson, and for and in consideration of the premises, doth grant and convey unto said said James B. Stewart, all of the said real estate, and said right, title and interest