

A Stamp of the Seal of the said County affixed thereto and duly Countersigned to the amount of fifty Cents.
 Test, James R. Tyler, Secy

This Ind. Writ and return do on the last day of January 1871, before day Howard of the County of Southampton and State of Virginia, of the one part, and Andrew S. Butler of the said County and State of, the other part, witnesseth that the said Sally Harwood for and in consideration of the sum of fifty dollars to her in hand paid by the said Andrew S. Butler's Exor. before the reading and delivery of above premises, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, conveyed and sold, and by these premises the said bargain and sale, unto him the said Andrew S. Butler during the term of the Natural life of the said Sally Harwood, all her right, title and interest in the tract of Land above described, siting her place and second part of a certain tract or parcel of Land which said Harwood died seized and possessed, the said tract lying and being in the former County of Southampton (intermingled by allusion to the same, upon or upon and bounded by the Land of said Butler, first tract and siting, to have and to hold the above tract or parcel of Land and premises unto him the said Andrew S. Butler, his heirs and assigns during the Natural life of the said Sally Harwood, and the said Sally Harwood, for herself, her heirs, assigns and assigns to and with the said Andrew S. Butler, his heirs and assigns, that the said premises Harwood and assigns, all the right title and interest in and to the above tract or parcel of Land during the term aforesaid, against the claims or demands of all and every other persons or persons whatsoever And witnesseth that the said Sally Harwood, her heirs and assigns do her hand and seal the day and year above written.
 Signed Sealed and delivered } Sally Harwood, (Seal) in presence of }
 J. B. Butler }
 J. B. Butler

Southampton County In the Clerk's Office, January the 14th 1871 This Ind. of Virginia and State of Sally Harwood to the Andrew S. Butler, was forth with the said Sally Harwood by the Court of J. B. Butler and J. B. Butler, the Subscribing witnesses thereto and admitted to record, a Stamp of the Seal of the said County to the amount of fifty Cents, being affixed thereto and duly Countersigned Test, James R. Tyler, Secy

Whereas by a Decree of the Circuit Court of Southampton County made at the November Term 1869, in the cause therein pending between J. B. Butler and others are Plaintiffs and John E. E. and others Defendants, it was decreed and ordered, that John E. E., who was by said Decree appointed Commissioner for said purpose, proceed to sell the real Estate found in said Decree, in such parcels as he might deem best and in the same named in said Decree and returns the said John E. E., as