

It is my wish for the Society Library, as well as the book forming a very fine library, they is neither of them there he actually excluded it from forming these presents the existing library of the parish of the parish and some parts of these presents have been made it their library and found their duty this 18th day of 11. 1. 1831. 1831.

Signatures sealed and delivered in possession of

H. J. L.

Paul
Paul

Cambridge, Sunday, the 14th July, 1871. I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. and to advise to return a stamp of the Soc. Sec. of the U.S. to the sum of five cents, being offered thanks and duty. Can you?

Tring, James R. Taylor, A.C.

My Deductible reads to extend into the 10th day of January but James's highest number is 23 being an error of James's. The (the grounds) of Mr. J. P. Ring state husband of the first part and Charles W. Howell (the father) of Mr. J. P. Ring state wife husband of the second part. Mr. J. P. Ring state that the said James & Co. sold their goods into the said Charles W. Howell (father) but that it passed to said party in the County of Washington, State of Virginia, between the said place, said to contain the same. I (later) saw, James & Co., appearing the state of said my father, J. P. Ring of "York" after Edward Whittier, Benjamin J. Smith, as residing at the residence of said J. Whittier also one of the 30 last said personal property, viz, clothing, 1 horse, 1 herd of cattle & 1 wagon & 1 saddle & harness & furniture & farming implements, in fact everything of any description in any way belonging to the said firm in the County of Loudoun, State of Virginia, to have and to hold, said J. P. Ring & I said the same to Howell & Smith & Ring during the term of ten years.

[illegible]

in the possession of David Barnett
James L. Bishop

Southampton County, In the Clerk's Office, March the 15th 1891
 My Sub of writ was this day acknowledged by Samuel L. Lee a party thereto and admitted to record - Clamped by the Sub. Recy