

formally being explained to her, she did still retain all apprehensive acknowledgments the book of debts to be her copy, and declared that she had accordingly executed the same, and being not able to return it, she had been having since the day of May 1871.

A. B. Shady
A. B. Shady

Dorchester County, In the Clerk's Office, June 24th 1871.
This Book of debts from Geo. A. Applewhite and wife to William A. Shady, Senior, for the benefit of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was this day received, and by the said the Clerk, it was found, it was found to be correct.
A receipt of the said Geo. A. Applewhite for the amount of $450.00 being brought forward and being correct.

John A. Shady, Jr.

Examined and delivered to the Clerk of the County of Dorchester, June 24th 1871.
The said Book of debts from Geo. A. Applewhite and wife to William A. Shady, Senior, for the benefit of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was this day received, and by the said the Clerk, it was found, it was found to be correct.
A receipt of the said Geo. A. Applewhite for the amount of $450.00 being brought forward and being correct.

Dorchester County, In the Clerk's Office, June 24th 1871.
This Book from Geo. A. Applewhite, to William A. Shady, was this day acknowledged by the said Geo. A. Applewhite.

Applewhite, to be delivered to the Clerk of the County.

John A. Shady, Jr.
Dorchester
County, June 24th 1871.
This Book of debts from Geo. A. Applewhite and wife to William A. Shady, Senior, for the benefit of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was this day received, and by the said the Clerk, it was found, it was found to be correct.

Book of debts from Geo. A. Applewhite and wife to William A. Shady, Senior, for the benefit of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was this day received, and by the said the Clerk, it was found, it was found to be correct.

Dorchester
County, June 24th 1871.
This Book of debts from Geo. A. Applewhite and wife to William A. Shady, Senior, for the benefit of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was this day received, and by the said the Clerk, it was found, it was found to be correct.

This Book of debts from Geo. A. Applewhite and wife to William A. Shady, Senior, for the benefit of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was this day received, and by the said the Clerk, it was found, it was found to be correct.