

Whereby a Term of the Court Court of South Carolina being rendered at a Term Term 1871. The said Court of South Carolina did then, against, say all things; & I do say was appointed Commission to see all the real Estate belonging to the said Court, containing by settlement three hundred and thirty three acres, more or less, being to his Majesty's use, and in witness to the coming of said Court, I delivered said Land and took the same to the Court house of said County, on the day of February 1871, and at the said Court house I did become the purchaser by bidding thereof the sum of Fifty pounds and thirty five dollars, which was the highest bid made for said Land, say such Words this 20th day of March 1871, between I & the Commission as appeared of the first part, and above I do of the second part, to wit, that the said Court of South Carolina did in consideration of Fifty pounds and thirty five dollars, to have in hand paid by the said Court of South Carolina, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, doth grant bargain and sell unto the said Court of South Carolina, the land and things, the said Court also described, belonging to the estate of the said Court, containing by settlement three hundred and thirty three acres, more or less; and the said Court of South Carolina as appeared, Covenants to the said Court of South Carolina, only such title as was vested in said Court by said Court.
 Witness the following Signatures and Seal

Commissioner of the Court of South Carolina

South Carolina Court, Court of the Court of South Carolina, July 17th 1871.
 The said Court of South Carolina, I do say, Commission to the said Court of South Carolina, as the day acknowledged by the said Commission of South Carolina, Commission as appeared, to be his bid, and that he doth not admit to receive the same of the said Court of South Carolina, to the amount of Five dollars, being affixed thereto at day cancelled.

Seal, Charles F. Foy, J.C.

And, Whereby a Term of the Court Court of South Carolina, W. W. Foy was appointed Commission to see all the real Estate of the said Court, and in accordance with the Court of South Carolina, did then, at further auction to the said Court, on March 1871, at the Court house of said County, containing by settlement three hundred and thirty three acres, more or less, being to his Majesty's use, and in witness to the coming of said Court, I delivered said Land and took the same to the Court house of said County, on the day of February 1871, and at the said Court house I did become the purchaser by bidding thereof the sum of Fifty pounds and thirty five dollars, which was the highest bid made for said Land, say such Words this 20th day of March 1871, between I & the Commission as appeared of the first part, and above I do of the second part, to wit, that the said Court of South Carolina did in consideration of Fifty pounds and thirty five dollars, to have in hand paid by the said Court of South Carolina, doth grant bargain and sell unto the said Court of South Carolina, the land and things, the said Court also described belonging to the estate of the said Court, containing by settlement three hundred and thirty three acres, more or less; and the said Court of South Carolina as appeared, Covenants to the said Court of South Carolina, only such title as was vested in said Court by said Court.