

of Larnach Hall, the house of Helen Jordan, and Mary, also some cattle, two and an dog, fifteen dogs, two ducks, two cats, and also the household and kitchen furniture, also my entire crop consisting of corn, and potatoes, George W. Bond, to secure the payment of the following debts, to wit: One Bond due to H. I. Butler, for the debt for all Butler, for twenty five dollars and 90 cents, due the first day of May 1859, One Bond due to same for fifty dollars, due the 22nd day of October 1859, One Bond due the same for twenty seven dollars, due the twentieth day of January 1858, One Bond due the same for fifty five dollars, due the 2nd day of June 1859, One Bond due the same for two hundred and eighty seven dollars, due the 10th of September 1859, One Bond due the same for forty dollars and twenty five cents, due the 1st of 1859, also secured to I. Butler as security for the debt for all Butler to two other due at Williams for about twenty dollars. One Bond to Edward and Robert also left and damaged, and the debt for all Butler's equipment except the sails, mules, as regards the above named property, Robert the said Butler there as for security to which for all Butler to H. I. Butler? promise to deliver and keep at fifteen days notice for cash, enough or all of the above property of Williams to pay and of the above debt, for the expenses of the said and debt, and the balance of any, for one day for all Butler or Butler's or Butler's or Butler's or Butler's only, let me have and keep.

In presence of James P. Boardman
 James J. Lister?

J. M. Butler? (Seal)
 W. B. Butler? (Seal)

One hundred, under the Clerk's Office, August the 14th, 1859.
 This Debt of Bond from James W. Butler to H. I. Butler, under the hands of H. I. Butler, was this day given by the Clerk of James P. Boardman and James J. Lister, the Subscribing of George Williams and admitted to the record. A sample of the said Bond of the said to the amount of one hundred being affixed thereto and duly certified.

Seal
 James P. Boardman, C. C.

Examined and returned to the Williams

This Debt of Bond was the 24th day of July 1859, between George Williams and George Williams, was of the first part, and Charles B. Williams of the second part, witnessed that the said George Williams and George Williams, was for and in consideration of the hundred and fifty, due to H. I. Butler, the same is said, paid, by the said George B. Williams, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and George Williams, bargains and sells with the said Charles B. Williams, all right, and title and interest in the said of which, and George Williams, did sign and proposed, and the said George Williams and wife, did equanimously generally, the title to the said said George Williams, the following signatures and seals.

George Williams (Seal)
 George Williams (Seal)