

This Agreement made the 15th day of December 1871, between Jas. L. Williams of the first part and Charles C. Broadhead of the other part, witnesses as follows: Whereas the said Williams has heretofore under a Debt of Bond executed by Abraham Morris to Henry W. Park, Justice of the Peace, County of Caroline, Virginia, recorded in the Clerk's Office of said County, a sum of money, to wit: the said debt and bond is hereby made; did grant and convey to the said Park a certain tract of land known as the said debt, and whereas the said Park did, in pursuance of said Debt, take the said tract of land, and whereas the said Park of Williams known as the purchase of the said land and is now in possession of the same, and whereas the said Williams by this day took the said tract of land to the said Broadhead for the sum of three hundred dollars, and whereas the said Broadhead did this day paid to the said Williams the sum of two hundred and twenty dollars in good money for the said land, and whereas the said Williams has now received any Debt for the said land from the said Park, Justice of the Peace, and the said Williams hereby promising, agreeing, and undertaking, to grant and convey to the said Broadhead and heirs, assigns, and assigns, the said tract of land in the right title and interest of the said Williams in and to the said tract of land in the said Debt of Bond mentioned and described, and good money, known as the said Debt, and whereas the said Williams the residue of the said three hundred dollars, to wit: One hundred and ten dollars, will interest from this date to the said, which said tract of land is commonly known as the Redburn Horse Pasture, and is supposed to be, between the said Broadhead and party, agreed upon, or about, for the same as by dissection to the said Park, Justice of the Peace, in order to perfect his title, and general warranty, as aforesaid, and the said Park is hereby authorized of Park & Park to the said Broadhead, instead of to and the said Williams; Witness the following signatures and seals:

Jas. L. Williams, (Seal)
Charles C. Broadhead, (Seal)

Witnessed my hand and the Clerk's Office, December 20th 1871.

This Agreement between Jas. L. Williams of the first part and Charles C. Broadhead of the other part, witnesses as follows: Whereas the said Williams has heretofore under a Debt of Bond executed by Abraham Morris to Henry W. Park, Justice of the Peace, County of Caroline, Virginia, recorded in the Clerk's Office of said County, a sum of money, to wit: the said debt and bond is hereby made; did grant and convey to the said Park a certain tract of land known as the said debt, and whereas the said Park did, in pursuance of said Debt, take the said tract of land, and whereas the said Park of Williams known as the purchase of the said land and is now in possession of the same, and whereas the said Williams by this day took the said tract of land to the said Broadhead for the sum of three hundred dollars, and whereas the said Broadhead did this day paid to the said Williams the sum of two hundred and twenty dollars in good money for the said land, and whereas the said Williams has now received any Debt for the said land from the said Park, Justice of the Peace, and the said Williams hereby promising, agreeing, and undertaking, to grant and convey to the said Broadhead and heirs, assigns, and assigns, the said tract of land in the right title and interest of the said Williams in and to the said tract of land in the said Debt of Bond mentioned and described, and good money, known as the said Debt, and whereas the said Williams the residue of the said three hundred dollars, to wit: One hundred and ten dollars, will interest from this date to the said, which said tract of land is commonly known as the Redburn Horse Pasture, and is supposed to be, between the said Broadhead and party, agreed upon, or about, for the same as by dissection to the said Park, Justice of the Peace, in order to perfect his title, and general warranty, as aforesaid, and the said Park is hereby authorized of Park & Park to the said Broadhead, instead of to and the said Williams; Witness the following signatures and seals:

This Agreement made the 15th day of December 1871, between Jas. L. Williams of the first part and Charles C. Broadhead of the other part, witnesses as follows: Whereas the said Williams has heretofore under a Debt of Bond executed by Abraham Morris to Henry W. Park, Justice of the Peace, County of Caroline, Virginia, recorded in the Clerk's Office of said County, a sum of money, to wit: the said debt and bond is hereby made; did grant and convey to the said Park a certain tract of land known as the said debt, and whereas the said Park did, in pursuance of said Debt, take the said tract of land, and whereas the said Park of Williams known as the purchase of the said land and is now in possession of the same, and whereas the said Williams by this day took the said tract of land to the said Broadhead for the sum of three hundred dollars, and whereas the said Broadhead did this day paid to the said Williams the sum of two hundred and twenty dollars in good money for the said land, and whereas the said Williams has now received any Debt for the said land from the said Park, Justice of the Peace, and the said Williams hereby promising, agreeing, and undertaking, to grant and convey to the said Broadhead and heirs, assigns, and assigns, the said tract of land in the right title and interest of the said Williams in and to the said tract of land in the said Debt of Bond mentioned and described, and good money, known as the said Debt, and whereas the said Williams the residue of the said three hundred dollars, to wit: One hundred and ten dollars, will interest from this date to the said, which said tract of land is commonly known as the Redburn Horse Pasture, and is supposed to be, between the said Broadhead and party, agreed upon, or about, for the same as by dissection to the said Park, Justice of the Peace, in order to perfect his title, and general warranty, as aforesaid, and the said Park is hereby authorized of Park & Park to the said Broadhead, instead of to and the said Williams; Witness the following signatures and seals: