

Ely, &c. of the amount of fifty four dollars, in hand, viz. $155.50 due by John Adams & John White, my hand and Seal this 5th day of March 1871.

John P. Clark

Charles Davis

(Seal)

Wilmington, N.C. In the Clerk's Office, December the 15th 1871.
 This Sub. of Bonds from Charles Davis to William M. Brewster, Justice, for the benefit of Boston, Ely, &c. was acknowledged by the said Charles Davis to be his act and deed, and admitted to record, a Receipt for the Sub. Ben. of the Sub.
 to the amount of fifty four dollars, being offered above and duly Considered?
 Teste,

James R. Tyler, J.C.

Whereas William M. Langens (now dead), by his Sub. bond, did the first day of September 1868, as of record in the Clerk's Office of the County of Southampton, did convey unto William E. Hall, upon bond, the certain certain duty due the said James W. Adams Langens, &c. certain bonds in favor of Langens, as directed in said bond, as being and being in the County of Southampton and State of Virginia, regarding the land of Lewis C. Vaughan, Wm. McKeen's estate and the heirs of James E. Adams did claiming the same and a duty due same, was in fact, all of which, more fully appears by reference to the record of the County Court of Southampton, as shown in said return to said bonds, appears, asking by virtue of the aforesaid bond of bond after giving due notice of said return (and return) of the same as place of said, did on the 5th day of December 1868, present to the said highest bidder the said land in said bond, and that James W. Langens became the highest bidder in the sale of the land, and having paid therefor, said Sheriff, said Underwriter, Whipple, that the said William E. Hall, bonds, appears, for and in consideration of the premises and the further consideration of the same of the said bond and having paid to him in hand paid by the said James W. Langens, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have Langens, Hall and conveyed unto the said James W. Adams name his bond as above, all the right, title and interest which the said William E. Hall, Justice, appears, against under the aforesaid bond of bond and re lying in and to the said William's return, and have the said James W.
 Langens his bond as above, appears, present and delivery of the said William E.
 Hall, Justice, appears, have Langens, Adams and Seal this the 5th day of December 1868.

Sign'd, Seal'd and delivered in presence of H. H. Gray
 A. J. Hall

William E. Hall,

(Seal)

Wilmington, N.C. In the Clerk's Office, December the 15th 1871.
 This Sub. of Bonds from William E. Hall, Justice, to James W. Langens, appears, upon this day received and acknowledged by the said William E. Hall, Justice, as appearing, to be his act and deed and admitted to record.
 A Receipt for the Sub. Ben. of the Sub. to the amount of two dollars, being offered above and duly Considered?
 Teste,

James R. Tyler, J.C.