

In witness whereof, I have set my hand and seal this 20th day of December A.D. 1871.

John D. Tyler, Notary Public for the State of Virginia, doth certify that Elizabeth S. Hall, whose name is affixed to the foregoing instrument, is a native of this State, and has resided here for the past ten years; that she is the wife of Richard J. Barnes, a man of good character, and that they have two children, a son and a daughter, now living, named John D. Barnes and Elizabeth Barnes, who are also natives of this State, and have resided here for the past five years; that she is the widow of James L. Hall, deceased, and that she is now the sole owner of the property left her by her late husband, and that she is entitled to the same; that she is now the owner of the property described in the foregoing instrument, and that she is willing to sell the same to James L. Hall, Jr., for the sum of $1,000.00, and that she is willing to convey the title to the said property to James L. Hall, Jr., and his heirs and assigns, and that she is willing to execute such further papers as may be required for the conveyance of the same to James L. Hall, Jr., and his heirs and assigns.

John D. Hall,
Elizabeth S. Hall,

State of Virginia, County of Southampton, to wit,
I, James D. Tyler, a Notary Public in Chancery, in and for the County aforesaid, in the State of Virginia, do certify that Elizabeth S. Hall, the wife of James L. Hall, whose name is affixed to the foregoing instrument, having come before me on the 20th day of December 1871, personally appeared before me in the County aforesaid, and being duly examined, by me privately and apart from her husband, and having the written agreement fully explained to her, after the said Elizabeth S. Hall, acknowledged the said writing to be her act, or declaration, that she had willingly executed the same, and that she did so intend to do, under my hand this 18th day of December 1871.

James D. Tyler,
Notary Public
in Chancery

State of Virginia, County of Southampton, to wit,
I, James D. Tyler, a Notary Public in Chancery, in and for the said County, in the State of Virginia, do certify that James L. Hall, whose name is affixed to the foregoing instrument, having come before me on the 20th day of December 1871, fully acknowledged the same before me in the County aforesaid, and signed my hand this 18th day of December 1871.

James D. Tyler, Notary Public
in Chancery

Suffolk, Va. In the City of Suffolk, December the 20th, 1871.
The Deed of Deed given to James L. Hall, as wife to Richard J. Barnes, was duly recorded, and together with the certificate thereunto annexed, admitted to record, @ the Office of the City Clerk of the City of Suffolk, to the amount of fifty cents, being affixed thereto on day of December 20th.

Suffolk, James D. Tyler, N.C.