

E. silvaticus

This Court Grade 18 the 18 day of April 1873 before Elmer Davis, Jr., the said 1st Justice of the Peace, and of the other party, both of the County of Lancaster & State of Virginia, although the said Elmer Davis, Jr., said party, did not come into Court with his wife, Elmer Davis, Esq., the following of papers to wit, the wife of Elmer Davis, Esq., about the said Elmer Davis, your ready, containing two hundred & two (202) acres, more or less, at West Point known as the "West Point" tract, in Lancaster Co., Virginia, date 20 the tenth, property of which he is now possessed, according to boundaries written, and present property of west description. So far as service the property of said tract does, except by Elmer Davis, executed and due on the 18 day of April 1873 for one thousand two hundred and forty four ($1,244) dollars ($1244.00).
Witness the following signatures and seal, the day and year first above written.

Clicker / Torber Pass
R. E. Torber Pass

Sunderland, N.Y., Dec 14. - Coffin, Albany, Dec 15, 1892.
The Seal of Paul Jones Becker Davis & A. E. Davis (Joint) for the sum of Joseph R. Becker, over this day acknowledged by the said jointly of A. E. Davis & Co. to have due and full payment to receive the sum of $1,000.00 against the sum of $1,000.00 executed being reduced to two years. To the amount of $1000.00, due and owing thereon, as of January 2nd.

Isaac James Dingley? 69

I, John Edwards, late Administrator of Prob. No. 147 Edwards, and Plaintiff, of W. Edwards, Prob. No. 147 Edwards, his wife, after file in Court of Common Pleas of the State of New York as Plaintiff do hereby declare that I have no claims against either John S. de Blenque or others said to be and to have been at Prob. No. 147 Edwards' wig sole agents for the purpose of advertising to me as Administrator of Prob. No. 147 Edwards of claims or demands growing out of any transaction relative to Administration or Guardianship of Estate of John Edwards, deceased, dated 1st day of January 1878, at East Point, N.Y. See also this letter of W. Edwards,
K. R. Knapp.

Arthur J. Edwards ^{Secy.}
Dept.

Dear Mr. Clark Coffin, April 24th 1872 Dear Mr. Coffin, I have the pleasure to acknowledge your kind letter of yesterday from Mr. Edward C. H. Quincy & Son, and to inform you of the following: We have sent Mr. Quincy & Son a copy of the "Daily Advertiser" containing extracts as intended to read a stamp of the Post Office of the U.S. to the amount of five cents being affixed thereto and duly forwarded.

Perry R. Sylva 66