

thence the State has due laid 18th July to as that the first Station, containing by having eighty (80) acres, & how, as to hold back sundry lands together with all houses, ways, courts and other houses, people, Curvedules and privileges there and belonging, as any appertaining with him the said Joseph E. Weaver, his heirs, Executors, Administrators, Assigns, assigns, and the said Thomas J.
 Pettum and Ann Eliza Pettum his wife as for themselves, their heirs, Executors, Administrators and assigns, by these presents, promises, Covenants and agree to and with the said Joseph E. Weaver, his heirs, Executors, and assigns to servants and assigns defend the right to hold to and in the said Assigns, and a parcel of land assigned, with an as single the premises, with any parts and parcel thereof, find and clear of and from the claims or demand of any person in person whatsoever for which against the said Peter J. Pettum and wife Ann Eliza Pettum, have heretofore been having or assign them shall the day and year first written within signed and sealed in presence of } Thomas J. Pettum, Clerk Ann E. Pettum, Clerk

State of Virginia, County of Loudoun; to wit:
 This day, September, appeared before us, J. J. Leger, as Justice of the Peace, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for said County, both personally before us, Ann Eliza Pettum, wife of Thomas J. Pettum, formerly to a certain Suit of Benjamin D. Pettum, dated the 26th day of December A.D. 1871, and heretofore, and then the said Mrs. Ann Eliza Pettum, having the said Suit fully explained to her, privately and apart from her said husband, did swear that she legittimely signed, sealed, and executed the same and that she did not quit by what the same recited on hands the 26th day of December A.D. 1871.
 John J. Leger, J.P.
 Jos. J. Gordon, S.P.

County of Loudoun, State of Virginia, I John J. Leger, a Justice of the Peace, for the County and State aforesaid, do certify that Thomas J. Pettum whose name is signed to the within writing having died on the 26th day of December 1871, has acknowledged the same before me in my County aforesaid upon under my hand this 26th day of December 1871.
 John J. Leger, J.P.

Loudoun County, In the Clerk's Office, June the 17th 1872, This day I Benjamin D. Pettum of said County of Loudoun, as wife of Joseph E. Weaver, as the day received of legittimely signed the Certificate thereto annexed, and under a record of the Clerk of the said County the 26th day of the month of July 1871, having appeared thereto, and duly cancelled.
 Peter, L. A. Edwards, Ck

Land of returned to Justice
 Bellamy
 Whereas I was appointed by a Jura of the County and of Loudoun in the Sheriff's suit of John M. Bellamy against George D.
 Jones, Annamensis, to do a part of and belonging to said George D.