

Examin'd

John Dool, upon the twentieth day of February A.D. 1812, having for his bond, Commisary of the first part, and James R. Bryant, (Slave) of the second part, as of Southampton County, Virginia, Plaintiffs, vs.
 James R. Bryant, (Slave), as of the said County, Defendant, Commisary of the said Court of Southampton County, in the said County of Southampton, Virginia, against Bryant & others, rendered at the Term of Term at S. 1811, if said Court, to the said Court of said County, Virginia, did said Court do justice, and whereas the said Court (Commisary) is advised, that having rendered said as the said Court do justice presented in said Court, before the said said Court do justice him on the twentieth day of February A.D. 1812, and the said James R. Bryant became the purchaser for the said Court do justice the said Court do justice, of $100.00, and whereas the said Court do Bryant has fully paid the said purchase money, the receipt of which said sum is hereby acknowledged; And this said Court do justice that the said Court do justice is advised that having goods and things as the said Court do justice, the said Court do justice did deliver to the said Court do justice purchase as advised, being in said County, near by King's Creek, between a certain 2nd day, upon a large and is bounded by the Court do justice, North, West, and South, and by the several said the separate tract of Land is greater and larger of quantity, and subject to the same of the said the said Court do justice do.

Whereby the following Signature and Seal of James R. Bryant, (Slave)
 Commisary

Southampton County, In the Clerk's Office, July the 1st 1812 John Dool, (Slave) of the first part, vs. James R. Bryant, (Slave) of the second part, as the day received and acknowledged by the said Court do justice, and that said Court do justice to record, which was of the said Court do justice to the said Court do justice, being signed, sealed, and duly Cancelled.

John Dool, (Slave)
 Commisary

Examin'd

John Dool, upon the twentieth day of February A.D. 1812, having for his bond, Commisary of the first part, and James R. Bryant, (Slave) of the second part, as of Southampton County, Virginia, Plaintiffs, vs.
 James R. Bryant, (Slave), as of the said County, Defendant, Commisary of the said Court of Southampton County, in the said County of Southampton, Virginia, against Bryant & others, rendered at the Term of Term at S. 1811, if said Court, to the said Court of said County, Virginia, did
 said Court do justice, and whereas the said Court (Commisary)
 is advised, that having rendered said as the said Court do justice
 presented in said Court, before the said said Court do justice
 him on the twentieth day of February A.D. 1812, and the said James R. Bryant became the purchaser for the said Court do justice
 the said Court do justice, of $100.00, and whereas the said Court do Bryant has fully paid the said purchase money, the receipt of which said sum is hereby acknowledged; And this said Court do justice
 that the said Court do justice is advised that having
 goods and things as the said Court do justice, the said Court do justice did deliver to the said Court do justice purchase
 as advised, being in said County, near by King's Creek, between
 a certain 2nd day, upon a large and is bounded by the Court do justice, North, West, and South, and by the
 several said the separate tract of Land is greater and
 larger of quantity, and subject to the same of the said
 the said Court do justice do.

John Dool, (Slave)
 Commisary
 1812, and
 for Southampton
 County, Virginia,
 after said,
 just answer

John Dool, (Slave)
 Commisary
 1812, and
 for Southampton
 County, Virginia,
 after said,
 just answer

John Dool, (Slave)
 Commisary
 1812, and
 for Southampton
 County, Virginia,
 after said,
 just answer

John Dool, (Slave)
 Commisary
 1812, and
 for Southampton
 County, Virginia,
 after said,
 just answer