

and children furnished, what the said Ben & Daps bought of John W. Harrison as before, at the sale of the said James W. Harrison, or the square share, as is now in the possession of the said John W. Harrison, and the said Ben & Daps, who for himself and his heirs and for and in behalf of the said Caroline R. Daps, his wife, and her heirs doth warrant generally the property hereby conveyed?
Whose the following Signatures are these?

Ben & Daps, (Red)
Caroline R. Daps, (Red)

State of Virginia, County of Northampton, to wit, I, James W. Tyler, Comptroller in Chancery for the County of Northampton, State of Virginia, do hereby certify that Ben & Daps whose name is signed to the within writing bearing date on the 21st day of November 1872, they also acknowledged the same before me in my County aforesaid?
And I do further certify that Caroline R. Daps, the wife of the said Ben & Daps, whose name is signed to the within said writing date as aforesaid, personally appeared before me, in my County aforesaid, and being examined upon, freely and apart from her said husband, and having the said aforesaid, fully explained to her, she the said Caroline R. Daps, acknowledged the said to be her act and deed and that she has willingly executed the same and that she does not wish to retract the same under any hand this 21st day of November A. D. 1872?
James W. Tyler
Comptroller in Chancery

Northampton County, In the Clerk's Office, November the 21st 1872. This writ from Ben & Daps and wife to John W.
Tyler, was this day received, and together with the Certificate thereto annexed, admitted to record?
John S. Edwards, Clk

This Deed of Trust made this 21st day of November 1872, between John W. Tyler, Clerk and Sarah at the wife of the said John W. Tyler, of the one part, and Ben & Daps of the other part, being read in consideration of the above-mentioned and after having furnished the said parties of the said deed do grant to Comptroller James W. Tyler, to wit, a certain bond of Lord Edward G. Gwyn in the County of Northampton New Dominion and in the Kingdom of Great Britain of the said James W. Tyler, containing the following words to wit, "I, James W. Tyler, Clerk do hereby certify that the said Ben & Daps, whose name is signed to the within writing bearing date on the 21st day of November 1872, they also acknowledged the same before me in my County aforesaid, and being examined upon, freely and apart from her said husband, and having the said aforesaid, fully explained to her, she the said Caroline R. Daps, acknowledged the said to be her act and deed and that she has willingly executed the same and that she does not wish to retract the same under any hand this 21st day of November A. D. 1872?"