

Received to
J. H. Corbett Admin
of Cas. H. Corbett
Dec. 24. 1902

in consideration of the agreement and promise hereafter made for him by the said John W. Smith, relinquish, discharge and from quit claim to, and to every part of the property, real and personal, of him, the said John W. Smith, to which the said Virginia, whether right or the purshing of, she is entitled Marriage, be entitled to by virtue of said or any other any manner that the said Virginia be in consideration of the said intended Marriage and in pursuance of the purshing of the same before mentioned agreement, the said John W. Smith did demand and agree that in case the said Virginia, William, shall, however far, too, as in that case the said John W. Smith did give into the said Virginia his said intended wife, then following property, to be held by the said James M. Smith as trustee for the said and to be sold for the use of the said Virginia and her heirs forever, to wit, one thousand dollars, the said or parcel of said containing about two hundred acres, more or less, in part of the State of the said Virginia containing as follows: the great happy land, also one house, one buggy a carriage, one bed, furniture and two hundred dollars in money, and the said Virginia, William, as his part in consideration of the promise made for him as herein before said and made, then hereby relinquish, discharge, and from quit claim, to all and every part of the property, real and personal of him the said John W. Smith, to which the said Virginia, William, might be the purshing of the said above mentioned Marriage be entitled to by virtue of said or any other any manner Witness the following signatures and seals of

Where the following Signatures and Seals

Wm. M. Beaton
Wm. D. Selwell

I give H. Duck Seal
 Pat. Mc. Corbett Seal
 Virginia R. Whitney Seal

Dorchester County; In the Clerk's Office, October the 20th, 1873.
This Cause came on for trial between Simon W. Duck and Eugene H. May, Jr.
as to the day fixed as to the parties hereto, by the Court of Appeals Prothon. Wm. P. Welch, the undersigned appearing, and admitted on record.
J. S. Edwards, C. C.

Sister R Edwards, C.C.

This I did Make this 21st day of October 1873, between W. W. Briggs Commissaries On the one hand, and the Chancery Court of Wick against David of the first part and Franklin Wick of the second part, It being that the said W. W.
Briggs Commissaries as aforesaid for and in consideration of the sum of Five Hundred dollars to him in hand paid by the said Franklin Wick, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, did grant bargain and sell unto the said Franklin Wick his heirs and assigns, a Certain Lot and Land with a Storehouse thereon situated at Berlin in Washington County, containing One half an acre of land, and the said W. W. Briggs Commissaries as aforesaid duly Conveyed to the said Franklin Wick such title to said Lot and Land as is stated in him by said deed.
In Testis etc. following Signature and Seal.

W. W. Briggs Commissaries

and Wm. Briggs Comd'g