

68. On Oct. 20th, 1873, day of October, in the year of our Lord, between George J. H. and James G. Holloman, both of the State of Virginia, doth grant unto each other, during the term of years, to the last of October, the following property to wit: One horse, two cows and a Calf, two future calves, and the land upon which in either place being the property of the Calf, to such horse, West to the river, one acre, situated in the Middle River, in Gloucester County, Virginia, in a tract, the land to become in fee simple, of a hill, one acre & a half, and a valley, one acre & a half, all the land for lessing per acre, and legal interest paid here, which is following description of tract:

Sept. 24th 1873
John C. Holloman

Gloucester County, Va. Clerk's Office, October the 24th, 1873.

68. This Deed of Sale, from George J. Holloman to James G. Holloman (son), for the sum of One Thousand dollars ($1,000) due and owing, and about due, or more.

Test. J. R. Edwards, Esq.

68. This Deed made the 20th day of October in the year 1873, between George J. Holloman and J. D. Pittman, of the latter party, witness, that George J. Holloman, the said George J. Holloman, doth grant unto the said J. D. Pittman the following property, all that tract of Land purchased by the said Samuel B. Pittman, George J. Holloman the same date as the said S. B. Pittman, the reference is made for further particular, in Bond to Secure his Notes at Bank of $250 dollars, each, dated the 10th day of October 1873, and due on the 1st day of June, after date, and the other twelve months after date, one bearing due the 10th day of April 1874, and the other due the 10th day of October 1874, to George B. Pittman, by Henry J. Webb, witness the following signature and seal:

Henry J. Webb

68. This day personally appeared before me W. B. Holloman, Justice of the Peace and not for the County of Gloucester, in State of Virginia, Henry J. Webb above named is assigned to the within Deed, acknowledged the same, before me, sealed my hand & sealed this 20th day of October 1873.

W. B. Holloman, J. P.

Gloucester County, Va. the Clerk's Office, November the 25th 1873. This Deed of Sale from Henry J. Webb to J. D. Pittman (son), for the sum of One Thousand dollars ($1,000) due and owing, and about due, or more, the Certificate thereto annexed, attested to record.

Test. J. R. Edwards, Esq.

68. This Deed of Sale made this 20th day of October 1873, between George J. Holloman, witness of the first party, and J. D. Pittman, witness of the second party, attesting, that in consideration of the former's good promises, the said J. D. Pittman, being young and unable to the best knowledge of him and his wife, good wife, to furnish, the following property to wit, One horse, two cows and a lot of calves, one Calf, two Cows, two hens, some hens, fowls, stars, Cooking utensils of farming implements, my present City

This Deed is made by
John C. Holloman
Gloucester County, Virginia
for James G. Holloman to hold the aforesaid estate of land in fee simple
for a term of life.

+ This Deed of Sale
of land in fee simple
for a term of life.

This Deed is made by James G. Holloman
of Gloucester
County, Va.
and George J. Webb, attested by George
J. Webb and signed and sealed by John
C. Holloman.

This Deed is made by George J. Webb
of Gloucester
County, Va.
and signed and
sealed by John
C. Holloman.

+ This Deed of Sale
is made by John
C. Holloman
and signed and sealed by him.

This Deed is made by John C. Holloman
and signed and
sealed by him.