

January 21st 1874, personally appeared before me an acknowledged Notary Public for the said State of New York, John Lewis, my husband, this 21st day of January, A.D. 1874.

J. C. Lewis,
Husband in Charge

Examination being made at the Clerk's Office, January, the 14th 1874.
That said John Lewis, of the County of Queens, State of New York, for and in behalf of the said John Lewis, my husband, this 21st day of January, A.D. 1874, and together with the Certificate thereto annexed, admitted to record.

Test L. L. Edwards, Ck

Know all men by these presents that I, John Lewis, of the County of Queens, State of New York, do hereby claim a Homestead exemption to the amount of ten thousand dollars, under an act of the General Assembly of Virginia, passed during the year 1874, and if as the fact is, the property hereby mentioned is not worth more than I also claim whatever property value, pursuant to which, I may hereafter acquire under the said claim. These amounts, as the said J. Lewis, do not exceed the following, to wit, Valued as follows, fifty barrels of Corn valued at $100, twenty of stacked pork valued at $100, one horse valued at $50, one cow valued at $30, a head of cattle valued at $15, and my interest in the above, and at $30, one Homestead of Kitchen furnished Valued at $150, forming therein valued at $100, and I have no other in the amounting to $740.
Whereof the following signatures and date this 14th day of January, 1874.

John Lewis

(Seal)

Examination being made at the Clerk's Office, January, the 14th 1874.
That said John Lewis, claiming the Homestead exemption, personally appeared before me at the General Assembly of Virginia, and this day acknowledged by the said John Lewis, and his wife, and placed, and admitted to record.

Test L. L. Edwards, Ck

That I, John Lewis, the 14th day of January, in the year One thousand eight hundred and seventy four, before said Notary Public, do hereby claim a Homestead exemption to the amount of ten thousand dollars, under an act of the General Assembly of Virginia, passed during the year 1874, and if as the fact is, the property hereby mentioned is not worth more than I also claim whatever property value, pursuant to which, I may hereafter acquire under the said claim. These amounts, as the said J. Lewis, do not exceed the following, to wit, Valued as follows, fifty barrels of Corn valued at $100, twenty of stacked pork valued at $100, one horse valued at $50, one cow valued at $30, a head of cattle valued at $15, and my interest in the above, and at $30, one Homestead of Kitchen furnished Valued at $150, forming therein valued at $100, and I have no other in the amounting to $740.
Whereof the following signatures and date this 14th day of January, 1874.

Examined

33,27 ch. to said John Lewis, and his wife, and placed, and admitted to record.