

described. Placing the following Signatures of Testators W. H. Hodgeson, Senator, State of Virginia, Staunton County, Va.

C. W. Nicholson, Esq.
Examiner, Staunton County, Va.
I, James Taylor, a Commisioner in Chancery for the County Court of Staunton County and State of Virginia, do certify that C. W. Nicholson whose name is signed to the writing above bearing date on the 27th day of December 1873, has acknowledged to me this day before me in my County Court House, that he is the testator named in the will above described, and that the same was executed on the 26th day of December A.D. 1873.
James Taylor

S. E. Edwards, Esq.
Staunton County, Va. at the State Office, January 17th 1874.
I, S. E. Edwards, Esq. from West Virginia; C. W. Nicholson to Pittsburgh, Pa., was this day acknowledged by the said C. W. Nicholson, testator, and testator of the will above mentioned, of the acknowledgment of the said C. W. Nicholson, admitted to record S. E. Edwards

John H. Neely
I, John H. Neely the 28th day of December in the year 1873 before R. H. Neely of the first part, & Charles Riddell of the second part, executors, but for as is contained in the bond of service, four hundred dollars to the heirs of Neely, in land held by the said Charles Riddell to a tract of land containing a certain number of acres, and so described as being acknowledged by the said R. H. Neely, last given, granted, bargained and sold, by these presents, give, grant, bargain & sell, unto the said C. R. Riddell with general warranty, two certain tracts of land of both being and lying in the County of Staunton, before the two last containing three hundred acres, bounded on the north and eastward as follows: Beginning at the point where the boundary of the land of R. H. Neely, from the land of C. R. Riddell comes to the boundary of R. H. Neely, thence along said boundary to a rock on the side of Ridgeway Creek, a distance of one-half mile, and so described as follows: Beginning at a rock above the line separating the lands of R. H. Neely from the land of C. R. Riddell, comes to said Rock, thence along said line to the dividing line between the lands of R. H. Neely and the lands of John H. Neely, thence along said line to a rock, and so described as follows:
Beginning at a rock on the side of Ridgeley Creek, a distance of one-half mile, thence along said line to the dividing line between the lands of R. H. Neely and the lands of John H. Neely, thence along said line to a rock, and so described as follows:
Beginning at a rock on the side of Ridgeley Creek, a distance of one-half mile, thence along said line to the dividing line between the lands of R. H. Neely and the lands of John H. Neely, thence along said line to a rock, and so described as follows:

John H. Neely
Testator, Staunton County, Va.

I, James Taylor, a Commissioner in Chancery for the County Court of Staunton County and State of Virginia, do certify that John H. Neely whose name is signed to the writing above bearing date on the