

Examined

This Bond of Trust made the 12th day of February 1874 between Mary J. Coll, grantor of the first part and Wm. Briggs trustee of the said part. Whereas that the said Mary J. Coll with good, lawful, and sole intent and for a certain tract of land lying in Southampton County containing by estimation four hundred and twenty and some and bounded by the lands of Mary Whitcomb, School Road and others it being the lands devised to the said Mary J. Coll by the will of her father John Coll who died to record a bond due to Wm. Briggs for four hundred dollars dated the 12th of February 1874, and carrying eight per cent interest from date and the said Mary J. Coll doth consent and the said Wm. Briggs doth bind to the said tract of land, whereby it appears the following signatures and seals.

Wm. Briggs
J. Coll

Mary J. Coll
Wm. Briggs

Southampton County, in the Clerk's Office February 16th 1874.

This Bond of Trust from Mary J. Coll to Wm. Briggs (trustee) for the benefit of the said Mary J. Coll was duly signed and acknowledged by the said Mary J. Coll and due and admitted to record.

Teste R. Edwards Clk.

Examined

Whereas in the month of October 1873 J. R. Rawls of Southampton County and Justice of the Peace William Wadsworth Esq. of the City of Petersburg and (1) James G. (10) Sons of James L. Gray Shreve and hundred and sixty dollars and in as much as Government has placed it beyond my power to the land to comply with my contract and for further consideration one dollar and paid at hand I do hereby transfer all of my right title and interest in the said lot to the said James William Wadsworth Esq. with the condition that (the said) shall remain at the present condition (said) subject to my use until the 1st May 1874, reserving the privilege of redeeming it previous to that time should I so elect to do.

The private consideration of this instrument is that I shall be entitled in the account here against me by William Wadsworth Esq. for the value of said lot up (10) ten per cent for the day thereof. Given under my hand and seal the 10th day of February 1874.

Wm. Briggs
J. Coll

Wm. Briggs

Southampton County, in the Clerk's Office February 16th 1874.

This Bond of Trust from J. Rawls to William Wadsworth Esq. was this day signed and acknowledged by the said Rawls to be his act and done and admitted to record.

Teste R. Edwards Clk.

Examined

Whereas Theophilus O. Smith and James O. his wife did on the 2nd day of February 1874 execute a Bond of Trust to William C. Myrick trustee, to secure a debt due Benjamin C. Pope and did convey in said Bond for that purpose, all the interest in the tract of land of which Edward M. Smith did seign and possess. Now this Bond of Trust made the 23rd day of January 1874 between William C. Myrick Benjamin C. Pope of the first part and J. O. Smith of the second part. Whereas that the said J. O. Smith hath fully paid to the said Benjamin C. Pope the said debt which is hereby acknowledged, the said Wm. C. Myrick Benjamin C. Pope with fully release unto the said J. O. Smith and James O. his wife. The interest in the Bond before described, Whereby the following signatures and seals.

Wm. C. Myrick Justice
Ben C. Pope