

Virginia County of Southampton to wit

J. N. B. Holland, a Justice of the peace in and for the said County of Virginia, do certify that Peter C. Dineen, whose name is upon the writing above bearing date the 13th day of March 1875, has a claim against the same land not in this County aforesaid.

Given under my hand this 13th day of March 1875.

J. N. B. Holland JP

Southampton County, in the Clerk's Office March 24th 1875.

This Deed of Grant from Peter C. Dineen to R. B. Dineen (Wife), for the benefit of Mount Holland, was this day received, and together with the earlier deeds annexed, admitted to record.

Witness, M. Edwards C. C.

This Deed was made the first (1st) day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty, between George C. Dineen and wife, William M. Dineen, do wife and John H. Dineen of the County of Southampton, State of Virginia of the first part, and Charles Neal of the second part, Witnesses: That the said parties of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of Five hundred ($500) dollars lawful money of the United States of America, to them in hand paid, by the said party of the second part, at or before the making and delivery of said presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has granted, conveyed, sold, aliened, released, conveyed and confirmed, and by these presents does grant, convey, sell, alien, release, release, convey and confirm unto the said party of the second part, and to his heirs and assigns forever, all of that piece of land, containing more or less than one hundred and thirty acres, more or less, lying and being in a tract called Long Creek here along the County road leading from the City of New to Francis Bridge, to a small stream called Little Neck here, then down about two hundred, to where they will near the rock colored in the Deed and Francis Park Road, the most piece of land containing fifty (50) acres and a half, together with all and singular the tenements, buildings, and appurtenances thereto belonging, as in and to the said parties, and the original and receipt hereunder and hereunder, and upon and for the said thing. And also all the said rights, title, interest, property, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, as well the law, as in equity, of the said parties of the first part, of, by, and through the said described premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, together with the appurtenances unto the said party of the second part, as he his and assigns forever.

And the said parties of the first part, the said parties of the first part, have granted, sold, aliened, released, conveyed and confirmed unto the said party of the second part, as he his and assigns forever, all of that piece of land, containing more or less than one hundred and thirty acres, more or less, lying and being in a tract called Long Creek here along the County road leading from the City of New to Francis Bridge, to a small stream called Little Neck here, then down about two hundred, to where they will near the rock colored in the Deed and Francis Park Road, the most piece of land containing fifty (50) acres and a half, together with all and singular the tenements, buildings, and appurtenances thereto belonging, as in and to the said parties, and the original and receipt hereunder and hereunder, and upon and for the said thing. And also all the said rights, title, interest, property, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, as well the law, as in equity, of the said parties of the first part, of, by, and through the said described premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, together with the appurtenances unto the said party of the second part, as he his and assigns forever.

Given under my hand and seal this day and year first above written.

County of Southampton
State of Virginia } Deeds:

J. N. B. Holland, a Justice of the Peace for the County and State aforesaid do certify that George C. Dineen, William M. Dineen, do wife and John H. Dineen, of the County of Southampton, State of Virginia, have granted, sold, aliened, released, conveyed and confirmed unto the said party of the second part, as he his and assigns forever, all of that piece of land, containing more or less than one hundred and thirty acres, more or less, lying and being in a tract called Long Creek here along the County road leading from the City of New to Francis Bridge, to a small stream called Little Neck here, then down about two hundred, to where they will near the rock colored in the Deed and Francis Park Road, the most piece of land containing fifty (50) acres and a half, together with all and singular the tenements, buildings, and appurtenances thereto belonging, as in and to the said parties, and the original and receipt hereunder and hereunder, and upon and for the said thing. And also all the said rights, title, interest, property, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, as well the law, as in equity, of the said parties of the first part, of, by, and through the said described premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, together with the appurtenances unto the said party of the second part, as he his and assigns forever.

And the said parties of the first part, the said parties of the first part, have granted, sold, aliened, released, conveyed and confirmed unto the said party of the second part, as he his and assigns forever, all of that piece of land, containing more or less than one hundred and thirty acres, more or less, lying and being in a tract called Long Creek here along the County road leading from the City of New to Francis Bridge, to a small stream called Little Neck here, then down about two hundred, to where they will near the rock colored in the Deed and Francis Park Road, the most piece of land containing fifty (50) acres and a half, together with all and singular the tenements, buildings, and appurtenances thereto belonging, as in and to the said parties, and the original and receipt hereunder and hereunder, and upon and for the said thing. And also all the said rights, title, interest, property, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, as well the law, as in equity, of the said parties of the first part, of, by, and through the said described premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, together with the appurtenances unto the said party of the second part, as he his and assigns forever.

State of Virginia
County of Southampton

Dineen and Dineen, do wife and John H. Dineen, of the County of Southampton, State of Virginia, have granted, sold, aliened, released, conveyed and confirmed unto the said party of the second part, as he his and assigns forever, all of that piece of land, containing more or less than one hundred and thirty acres, more or less, lying and being in a tract called Long Creek here along the County road leading from the City of New to Francis Bridge, to a small stream called Little Neck here, then down about two hundred, to where they will near the rock colored in the Deed and Francis Park Road, the most piece of land containing fifty (50) acres and a half, together with all and singular the tenements, buildings, and appurtenances thereto belonging, as in and to the said parties, and the original and receipt hereunder and hereunder, and upon and for the said thing. And also all the said rights, title, interest, property, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, as well the law, as in equity, of the said parties of the first part, of, by, and through the said described premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, together with the appurtenances unto the said party of the second part, as he his and assigns forever.

Southampton County
This Deed of Grant and this day received

This Deed was made the first (1st) day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty, between George C. Dineen and wife, William M. Dineen, do wife and John H. Dineen, of the County of Southampton, State of Virginia, of the first part, and Charles Neal of the second part, Witnesses: That the said parties of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of Five hundred ($500) dollars lawful money of the United States of America, to them in hand paid, by the said party of the second part, at or before the making and delivery of said presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has granted, conveyed, sold, aliened, released, conveyed and confirmed, and by these presents does grant, convey, sell, alien, release, release, convey and confirm unto the said party of the second part, and to his heirs and assigns forever, all of that piece of land, containing more or less than one hundred and thirty acres, more or less, lying and being in a tract called Long Creek here along the County road leading from the City of New to Francis Bridge, to a small stream called Little Neck here, then down about two hundred, to where they will near the rock colored in the Deed and Francis Park Road, the most piece of land containing fifty (50) acres and a half, together with all and singular the tenements, buildings, and appurtenances thereto belonging, as in and to the said parties, and the original and receipt hereunder and hereunder, and upon and for the said thing. And also all the said rights, title, interest, property, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, as well the law, as in equity, of the said parties of the first part, of, by, and through the said described premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, together with the appurtenances unto the said party of the second part, as he his and assigns forever.

Southampton County to in the State of Virginia, do writing, do, having