This Deed made this 19th day of April 1875, between C. S. Flory and Margaret & Mary Grantors of the first part, and Oliver White, Donator of the other part, Witness: Nathaniel D. J. Dutton and J. D. Dutton have executed a deed, as condition that C. S. Flory and Margaret C. his wife should by deed or their last will and testament, leave all the land by deed or warranty to the said Margaret this deed. Witness: Nathaniel D. J. Dutton and J. D. Dutton of the said Flory and his wife, with their heirs and assigns, as well as the said of land upon which they have made and claiming seven hundred and fifty acres more or less and bounded by the lands of Charles Henry, Mrs. A. Briggs and others and is hereby acknowledged and agreed by the grantors with the intent that if the said D. J. Dutton and J. D. Dutton should within any life by reason of their being separated for the said Margaret, said land or be called upon to said land, the said Dutton shall sell the said land, after reasonable notice for cash and pay such sales, all they may have sustained and be answerable to the grantors. It is hereby the following signatures and seals.
